

The Wednesdays Literary Salon: Hemingway Professor Alan Helms and Rev. Kim

Four Wednesdays in February ~ 6:00-7:30^{sh}, Frothingham Library

Like most celebrated writers, Hemingway suffered a decline in reputation immediately following his death. In our time, however, he's being rehabilitated, and now it's his short stories that are prized more than his novels. We'll discuss roughly seven short stories per meeting, many of them now considered classics of the genre: "A Clean, Well-Lighted Place," "Hills Like White Elephants," "The Snows of Kilimanjaro," and "Big Two-Hearted River." Our text is the collection In Our Time, which you can find for pennies at abebooks.com or at the library. We'll also read from a hand-out, which will be ready for you before Christmas.

Professor Alan strongly recommends that you read all the stories over the holidays (you can think of your reading as a Christmas gift to yourself) and then reread them for our meetings. Of all the literary genres, the short story is closest to the lyric poem, in that it's highly concentrated and aims for one main overall dramatic effect. As anyone familiar with poetry knows, it's impossible to "get" a poem on a single reading; ditto a short story. This is especially true of Hemingway, who said that a good story should be like an iceberg with only one tenth showing above the water. The powerful part of the story, in his theory, isn't visible, which means that Hemingway isn't an immediately accessible writer. He definitely bears rereading.

All are welcome; all aboard!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Connections: Small Group Ministry

Registration has re-opened through January 27th!

Connections is the name of Arlington Street's small group ministry: facilitated experiences of deep sharing and listening around selected topics, such as what we love, our gifts, taking a stand, living, and dying.

This is an opportunity to join the existing groups when they reconvene in early February. Groups of 6-10 people will meet twice a month for 90 minutes, with a goal of deepening their relationships with one another and the congregation. We will explore and engage around shared Unitarian Universalist principles; and be included and heard in a safe and nurturing environment.

Registration is open today and every Sunday at the Welcome Table in the parish hall during coffee hour through January 27th. You can also sign up online at ascboston.org/connections.

Tiffany Windows Watercolor Show

Through January 20th ~ Museum of Biblical Art, New York City

A show at the Museum of Biblical Art (MOBIA), entitled "The Devotional Art of Louis C. Tiffany" includes two of Arlington Street Church's original watercolors, and another from one of our upstairs windows will be featured in the show. MOBIA is a new, small, modern, and non-denominational museum, that concentrates on art derived from the Bible and all religious traditions. The museum is located at 1865 Broadway, just a few blocks from Lincoln Center.

just to you, but to all whose life touches yours. Wear comfortable clothing (and yes, you can meditate in a chair!)

THIS WEEK

English as a Second Language (ESL) for Adults

Monday, Jan. 7th and Wed. January 9th ~ 10:00 AM, Perkins Room

Learn or improve your English! The class meets on Monday and Wednesday. Students practice speaking, listening, reading, and writing. Topics include general conversation, cooking, and holiday events, as well as grammar and pronunciation. The class is taught by Ann Troise, a member of Arlington Street Church, who has been certified to teach ESL by the Boston Academy of English.

Buddha's Belly ~ The Buddhist Book Discussion and the Arlington Street Zen Center

Tuesday, January 8th ~ 6:00 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

Buddha's Belly and the Arlington Street Zen Center (feel free to come to one or both) meet every 2nd and 4th Tuesday of the church year.

Buddha's Belly meets at 6 PM. Please read Jack Kornfield's After the Ecstasy, the Laundry, chapters 15-17 for this evening's session. In two weeks, we begin Pema Chödrön's, Living Beautifully with Uncertainty and Change.

Arlington Street Zen Center meets at 7 PM and includes seated and walking meditations, a dharma talk, and conversation. Beginners and experienced meditators from all traditions are welcome!

Kundalini Yoga Class

Wednesday, January 9th ~ 6:00 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

Experience fun exercises and poses, breathing techniques, chanting, meditation, and deep relaxation in this unique class. Moving energy through your body brings positive change and growth. There is a $10 charge that goes to the church.

Sacred Eros: Sexual Orientation, A Brief History

Wednesday, January 9th ~ 7:00 PM, Perkins Room

How did we change from talking about "sexual preference" to "sexual orientation?" Where did we get the idea that it was innate? What about the questions raised by "Queer Theory?" Join us as co-moderator Desmond Ravenstone gives an historical overview of how our views about gender and sexual identity have changed, and continue to change. Bring some munchies and good cheer!

Sacred Eros is a monthly discussion group that provides a safe and supportive space to explore questions about sexuality from a spiritual and ethical perspective. Anyone over 18 is welcome, and participants are expected to respect one another and keep personal matters discussed confidential.

We invite you to cut out this calendar and clip it to your refrigerator or bulletin board or, view the full calendar at ASCBoston.org

When Cancer Strikes a Friend: What to Say, What to Do, and How to Help

Wednesday, January 16th ~ 7:00 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

When friends or family members are facing cancer, we are often at a loss as to how to best respond. What should I say? What should I do? How can I help?

Rev. Bonnie Draeger, a cancer survivor and the executive director of Friends & Cancer, has spent a decade researching these questions. Her new book, When Cancer Strikes a Friend: What to Say, What to Do, and How to Help, includes the advice and expertise of over forty professionals, as well as the experiences and wisdom of hundreds of survivors/family/friends.

Bonnie will share her insights along with information and anecdotes in a presentation that will inspire and prepare friends, family and colleagues to offer their best help and support during another's cancer experience. A period of Q & A will follow Bonnie's remarks and she will be available for conversation and book signing afterwards. A book will be given to any attendee who makes a donation to Friends & Cancer (the book's sponsoring nonprofit).

Bonnie has appeared on the Bob Edwards Show (SiriusXM), CBS Radio News, NPR and other national media, and has been guest author at Barnes & Noble, Books a Million, Barbara's Books and other venues in Boston, Washington, DC, New York, Arizona, Chicago, Philadelphia, and on Cape Cod.
