

The Wednesdays: Death in Five Wednesdays

November 3rd, 10th, and 17th plus December 8th and 15th,
6:00-8:00 PM, Frothingham Library

You're welcome to join Professor Alan Helms and Rev. Kim for as little or as much as you're able for our next Wednesdays, Arlington Street's literary salon, in which we will explore the world's most perennially fascinating, most mysterious, most frightening to many, most cataclysmic to all, most profoundly important subject in the whole of literature: DEATH. There's not a great writer in world literature who hasn't written about it, and we're reading some of the best.

We begin with Tolstoy's Death of Ivan Ilych (November 3rd), a classic of Russian literature which tells of a rich, smug, government official who struggles against the agonizing knowledge that he is slowly dying, a final fact that utterly transforms his life. Then Thomas Mann's brilliant Death in Venice (November 10th), in which an eminent, lonely German writer sojourning in Venice ignores rumors of an impending plague and chooses instead to remain in the death-haunted city because of his infatuation with the beautiful Tadzio, his memorable angel of death.

Come one, come all; come for one, come for all! All are welcome!

ARLINGTON
STREET CHURCH
Unitarian Universalist

Vision 2013:

Doubling Our Membership at Arlington Street Church!

Tuesday, November 16th ~ 6:30-8:00 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

How is Arlington Street Church changing your life? Do you know people who are Unitarian Universalists but don’t know it? A critical mass of people living the Unitarian Universalist principles can transform the world! Let’s spread the word and become a congregation of 500 members.

How do we get there? What steps do we take along the way? What investments must we make? How much time will it take? Let’s get started!

Our first session will be brainstorming. All creative and imaginative ideas are welcome and will be seriously considered. It will all serve as input for the Prudential as we set priorities and plan the concrete steps that will impact us for years to come. We welcome, we urge, and we need your participation in this important discussion!

Reading Group: Immigration as a Moral Issue

Sundays October 31st & November 21st, 9:30-11:00 am, Carol Smith Room

Tuesday, November 9th ~ 6:30-8:00 PM, Frothingham Library (part 2)

Join us for a two-part reflection and discussion group in response to Margaret Reagan’s recent book The Death of Josseline: Immigration Stories from the Arizona-Mexico Borderlands (Beacon Press, 2010, 218 pp). Detailing heartbreakingly real human stories, The Death of Josseline invites us to consider how we as a religious community might be called to respond to the complex ethical, moral, and spiritual issues presented on the border. The Death of Josseline is being studied as a “common read” by Unitarian Universalist discussion groups across the country in preparation for the 2012 General Assembly to be held in Phoenix, AZ.

This series will be offered twice, with the Tuesday sessions facilitated by our Intern Minister, Rebecca Froom, and the Sunday sessions facilitated by Doug Fiero and Sam Gloyd. During the first session we will reflect on the Prologue through Chapter 4. During the second session we will reflect on Chapters 5-10. Copies of the book will be available for sale during coffee hour starting TODAY!
