ARLINGTON STREET CHURCH

NEWS FROM THE SOUL OF SUNDAY

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 2ND, 2011

TODAY

---

Coffee Hour

Today ~ Immediately following worship, Parish Hall

Let's all gather downstairs for coffee, soup, sandwiches, and community! If you're visiting Arlington Street Church, or would like information about Unitarian Universalism, please visit the Welcome Table.

We also want to share that the workload for our team is considerable, and we would welcome additional volunteers to help with food preparation and, especially, with clean-up. We'd like to suggest that all who enjoy the refreshments offer at least one Sunday to assist with dishes and other clean-up tasks.

For more information about joining our team, please contact Jon Ellertson or Sharon Pressly-Fiero at office@ASCBoston.org

The Seven Principles

Today ~ 11:00 AM, during worship, Sanctuary

While many religious traditions have a large body of liturgical music, due to the youth and diversity of our faith, there is comparatively very little music devoted specifically to Unitarian Universalist religious texts. Hoping to rectify this, our Director of Music, Mark David Buckles, began in 2007 to compose a series of seven choral intonations based on the seven principles of Unitarian Universalism. Today, in celebration of our Blessing of the Animals service, the Arlington Street Choir will premiere the seventh and final principle: We believe in the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part. This project was funded with generous support from many members of Arlington Street Church.

World Citizenship

Today ~ 2:00 PM, Sanctuary

You are warmly invited to join a group of Unitarians from Germany who are visiting us during their educational trip to the United States. After worshipping with us, they will sponsor an event with Gary Davis who will speak on the topic of World Citizenship.

After serving as a bomber pilot in the US Air Force during WWII, Gary renounced his American citizenship in 1948 to become a “citizen of the world.” Davis has written several books on this subject, and this promises to be a very lively event. All are welcome!

First Sunday Circle Celebration

Today ~ 5:00 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

This monthly worship service by and for people of color and their families (including children) is sponsored by Diverse, Revolutionary, Unitarian Universalist Multicultural Ministries (DRUUMM). Please bring food for the potluck, and then join us for worship.

The Wednesdays Literary Salon ~ Joan Didion

Wednesdays, October 5, 19, 26 & November 9 ~ 6:00-8:00 PM. ~ Frothingham Library

For many readers, Joan Didion is the best living American writer, & regardless of people’s tastes, virtually everyone ranks her at the very least, among the very best. She’s praised because of the range of her talents (novels, short fiction, memoir, essay, movies, theater, political reporting) and also because of her inimitable style: limpid, concise, colloquial, imaginative. She’s that unusual hybrid: a writer’s writer who’s also a popular favorite. Her career now spans nearly half a century, and it’s fair to say that for her admirers, she’s never written an ungainly or uninteresting sentence. She’s prolific, provocative, & memorable. She is, in a word (choose your favorite), a trip, a gas, a marvel, a knockout, a circus, an event, a phenomenon!

We’ll be reading four seminal works by Didion, one per session:

- October 5th – Slouching Toward Bethlehem (1968)
- October 19th – Play It As It Lays (1970)
- October 26th – The White Album (1978)
- November 9th – Democracy (1984)

Both Slouching and White Album are contained in Didion’s collected nonfiction, We Tell Ourselves Stories in Order to Live (2006), which you should be able to find at AbeBooks or Amazon for roughly $20 (it’s a big, fat, fabulous book with lots of other treasures). The other two, both novels, are generally available for

We invite you to cut out this calendar and clip it to your refrigerator or bulletin board!

Resistance and Transformation: Unitarian Universalist Social Justice History

Thursdays, October 6th - November 10th ~ 6:00-7:30 PM, Chapel

Join history professor and Arlington Street Church member David Cecere and our intern minister Rebecca Froom for a six-week seminar exploring the intersection of American historic events and the Unitarian Universalist commitment to social justice. We will engage the issues of antebellum-era slavery, free speech, modern feminism, and Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender rights. We’ll consider how the struggle for social justice is an ongoing process of extending liberty and equality to all Americans. Connections will be made between this historic process and modern Unitarian Universalist practice. For more information, or to register, please stop by the Welcome Table in the Parish Hall, or email David Cecere via the church at office@ascboston.org by Monday, October 3rd.
