ANNOUNCEMENTS

Ushers Needed for Christmas Eve

Christmas Eve is special at Arlington Street, with three candlelit services: 5 pm (a family-oriented service, with music provided our choir) and again at 7 and 9 pm (with music provided by the Boston Gay Men's Chorus). We need ushers to help out with all three services. You can volunteer by signing up at the Welcome Table in the Parish Hall after today's service; or by emailing or phoning the church office (office@ascboston.org; 617-536-7050). Please be sure to let us know which service or services you are volunteering to usher and provide an email address and phone number where we can reach you. Thank you!

Volunteers Needed!

Do you love babies and small children? Then we need you! We are looking for folks who would be willing to help out in the nursery on Sunday mornings, to give our young parents a short respite during the service. For safety's sake, all volunteers will need to be CORI checked and have gotten a flu vaccine. If you are interested, please contact our Director of Family Ministry, Dave Egan: degan@ascboston.org. Thanks!

Arlington Street's Literary Salon The Wednesdays: Shakespeare

Wednesdays ~ 6:00 pm, The Vendome, 160 Commonwealth Avenue
(tell the doorman you're there to see Professor Helms)

November 28th ~ Antony and Cleopatra

December 5th ~ Coriolanus

January 16th ~ Timon of Athens

January 30th ~ Pericles

Professor Alan Helms and Rev. Kim welcome you to the seventh installment of the Wednesdays Shakespearathon! Reading all 38 of Shakespeare's plays is admittedly a huge ambition, but Shakespeare is, by universal consent, not only the greatest writer in the English language, but one of the immortals of world literature. We'll need patience with archaic language while attending to a plethora of footnotes (there's no doing without them unless you live in a world where you cut your meat with a bodkin and your children say their orizons at bedtime). In other words, these Shakespeare courses are not for the faint of heart. But since it's generally true that "as ye sow, so shall ye reap," the rewards will be enormous. For many of us, this will be one of the great experiences of our lives! All are welcome!

ARLINGTON
STREET CHURCH
Unitarian Universalist

Rabbi Howard Berman says, "Chanukah, with its universal message of the light of spiritual freedom and the embrace of diversity, truly can and should be celebrated as an interfaith experience with our friends and neighbors in the community. We offer what has always been a family tradition as a special gift to our extended family throughout the city of Boston."

The Temple will once again honor community leaders representing organizations and issues that share the core spiritual and social values of the congregation. This year, the Temple will honor the neighboring churches in the Back Bay/Downtown neighborhoods. We are invited to join Rev. Kim in representing Arlington Street at this celebration! All are welcome to this free event. No reservations or tickets are required. For more information, please visit www.centralreformtemple.org
