Concert by Boston Chamber Music Society (BCMS)

Saturday, March 10th ~ 11:30 AM, Sanctuary

Welcome to Morning Light! Our own Gaby Whitehouse, BCMS board member, invites you to come listen to this magnificent chamber orchestra play works by Debussy and Dvorak in our beautiful sanctuary. Delicious reception to follow in the Hunnewell Chapel. We had great feedback from our fall concerts and look forward to seeing you at the final one in this three-concert series. It's good to see Boston catching up with European cities (think Prague and Amsterdam!), where morning concerts in churches are a wonderful part of daily life. And don't miss the chance to meet the musicians at the delicious reception in the Hunnewell Chapel following the concert. Tickets are $35, but for ASC members and friends there's a 50% discount! For tickets, visit BCMS at www.bostonchambermusic.org and enter ASC50 as the discount code.

Coro Allegro, Boston's LGBTQ+ and Allied Classical Chorus presents We Will Rise

Arlington Street's own Hala Hazar, Jim Tice, and Steve Vorenberg are members of Coro and would be thrilled to see you there! Tickets range from $25 to $65, and special pricing is available for seniors (20% discount) and students ($15 tickets). For tickets, see Jim Tice or Hala Hazar or visit coroallegro.org.

The Wednesdays Literary Salon:

Richard Wilbur with Professor Alan Helms & Rev. Kim

Wednesdays, February 21st and March 7th ~ 6:00 PM, The Vendome, 160 Commonwealth Ave. (tell the doorman you're there to see Professor Helms) A blurb from Professor Helms: Richard Wilbur, who died last October at the age of 96, was one of the best American poets of his or any other generation. A complete master of poetic forms, he was always deft and poised and intelligent. And with the possible exception of Eliot, no one can match him for wit and grace and elegance. He has soul as well, but his skill is a more perennial attraction. Watching him perform is like seeing the king of acrobats at the peak of his career. Our second Poet Laureate (Robert Penn Warren was the first) and winner of innumerable awards, including a National Book Award and two Pulitzers, he also wrote lyrics for Candide, my candidate for best Broadway musical of all time. He was a brilliant translator as well, working with Russian, French, and Spanish writers among others. Here's a teaser for you, called Exeunt, that hints at his prowess:

Piecemeal the summer dies;
At the field's edge a daisy lives alone;
A last shawl of burning lies
On a gray field-stone.

All cries are thin and terse;
The field has droned the summer's final mass;
A cricket like a dwindled hearse
Crawls from the dry grass.

I've chosen 36 poems for our three meetings - a tidy dozen per session. Our text is Richard Wilbur: New and Collected Poems (Harcourt Brace Jovanovich, 1988). Please be sure to get the correct title! To see which poems we'll be reading, please go to www.ascboston.org/programs/ASCcenter/index.html. Packets of these poems will also be available from Rev. Kim or in the church office.

Care For Mother Earth

Plastic was invented around 150 years ago. Think about how much plastic has been used in our country since then! It is still unknown how many hundreds of years it will take it to decompose; every single plastic item is still in existence! Let's pledge to buy fewer groceries and drinks packaged in plastic. Think about buying milk in cardboard cartons or salad greens in cellophane packages. What changes can you make? You can make a difference! This information is shared by members of the Social Action Committee and ASC members of Mothers Out Front.
