

Please join Team ASC for the 19th Annual Mother's Day Walk for Peace

Sunday, May 10th ~ 7 AM, Town Field, Dorchester

We hear and read about it every day: needless and senseless violence in our schools, on our streets, and in our neighborhoods. Let's ALL walk the walk that makes it clear: the time to end the violence is NOW.

The walk takes a couple of hours; we'll be back in time for worship at Arlington Street Church. Take the Red Line to Field's Corner, and walk to Town Field. If you drive, you can find parking on the side streets.

This is the annual fundraiser for the Louis D. Brown Peace Institute, which serves as a center of healing, teaching, and learning for families and communities dealing with murder, trauma, grief, and loss. Their principles—Love | Unity | Faith | Hope | Courage | Justice | Forgiveness—are aligned with our Unitarian Universalist principles. If you can, please contribute for supporting the Walk by going to the ASC pledge page for the Walk at this link: <http://goo.gl/krCTMe>. If you have any questions, please email transformation@ASCBoston.org.

Covenant Renewal and Friday Night Supper Appreciation Luncheon

Sunday, May 17th ~ 11:00 AM, Sanctuary and 12:00 PM, Parish Hall

On Covenant Renewal Sunday, members and friends pledge their financial support for the coming church year, which provides almost half of the annual income for our spiritual community and our work in the world. Following worship, once again, in celebration of Covenant Renewal, Friday Night Supper Program's (FNSP) Board of Directors will serve a homemade lunch to thank the congregation for 32 years of support in helping to feed our neighbors who are hungry and homeless. For more information about FNSP, please go to www.fridaynightsupper.org. Thank you for your part in supporting our spiritual home and community!

SUNDAY, APRIL 19TH, 2015

TODAY

Coffee Hour and Lunch

Today ~ Immediately following worship, Parish Hall

Let's all gather downstairs for coffee, soup, sandwiches, and community! If you're visiting Arlington Street Church, or would like information about Unitarian Universalism, please visit the Welcome Table.

We welcome additional volunteers to help with food preparation and, especially, with clean-up. To volunteer, and for more information about joining our team, please stop by the kitchen today, or contact Jon Ellertson.

Covenant Renewal: #IamASC

Today ~ 12:30 PM, Parish Hall

We are - every one of us! - the people of the beloved community at Arlington Street. Once a year, we renew our covenant of love and service with one another, and the world. This year's theme is #IamASC! Today, and for the entire month of April, our own Christa Lamb will be in the photo booth to snap your head shot for our #IamASC social media campaign. We'll also be filling in the blanks on ASC "Mad Libs" to share a little bit more about who we are. Come on by after the service and be part of the fun!

Over My Dead Body: How to Plan Your Own Memorial Service

Today ~ 12:30 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

Join our Community Minister, Rev. Vera O'Brien, for a hands-on, interactive workshop to plan your own memorial service. We'll talk about memorable services—memorable for better or for worse! Then we'll plan, with the goal that each participant will leave with a draft or finished product that can go on file with the church office and be shared with family and friends.

If you'd like, bring up your lunch from coffee hour, and come with your ideas and any favorite poems or music. Hymn books and other resources will be available. Creating your own service is truly a gift you can give your loved ones.

Rev. Vera is a chaplain at Brigham and Women's Hospital and former Lifespan Educator at ASC. Please contact Rev. Vera at office@ascboston.org for more information or if you have questions.

Social Action Committee's Winter Clothing Drive

Today through May 3rd

Why we are collecting winter apparel now that it's finally Spring? We're hoping that many of you and your neighbors will be disposing of unwanted winter items that can be put to good use. We plan to store cold weather clothing now for next winter, to distribute to people who are homeless. Please help us prevent cold weather injuries, such as frostbite and hypothermia, in a population that faces exposure to the elements on a daily basis. Donations may be dropped off today at the social action table, or during the week at the church office. Thank you!

The Call for Climate Justice - A Conversation with Tim DeChristopher

Today ~ 12:30 PM - 2:00 PM, First Church Boston

In recent years the climate justice movement has made great strides in organizing. However, there are still important areas of climate ethics to be addressed if we are to deepen our work, better support those on the front lines, and grow the movement. Join us for a conversation with climate justice activist, Tim DeChristopher. A seminarian at Harvard Divinity School, DeChristopher is known for his civil disobedience blocking the sale of mineral rights on Bureau of Land Management lands in Utah, which resulted in his being imprisoned by the US Government for 21 months. His story is documented in the award winning film, Bidder 70. Open to the public. Donations welcome at the door.

The Wednesdays: Arlington Street's Literary Salon Whitman's "Song of Myself"

Wednesdays, April 22nd and 29th, May 6th and 13th ~ 6:00-8:00 PM, Frothingham Library

Join Professor Alan Helms and Rev. Kim to discuss Walt Whitman's "Song of Myself," one of the masterpieces of world literature. Whitman was the first American poet who published in free verse, and the first to write in the American vernacular, eschewing words like "swain" and "sward" and employing Americanisms like "duds" and "pal" and "reckon." He said women matter as much as men, black people matter as much as white people, and sex is nothing to be ashamed of but something to be celebrated, and he's refreshingly irreverent, as when he claims that "The scent of these armpits is aroma finer than prayer," the line which caused Oliver Wendell Holmes to throw his copy in the fireplace. Outside the United States, Whitman is recognized as the peer of Shakespeare, Homer, and Dante. Come one and all to find out why!

This book has slightly different titles, but basically you want Leaves of Grass, the Original Edition (Penguin paperback, usually). You'll find many copies for a penny at Amazon & ABEBooks, or for free at the public library. Please be sure to read Cowley's "Introduction" and sections 1-11 of Song of Myself before our first meeting.

Arlington Street Circle of Caring

Sunday, April 26th ~ 12:30 PM, Frothingham Library

Are you battling illness, caring for someone who is ill, struggling with isolation or in the process of losing someone you love? Or have you already lost someone, and are you trying to cope with the heartbreak and anger that accompany loss and grief? If you are currently struggling, or have experienced this or any other type of life crisis and would like to share how you made it through, then please join the Caring Circle.

Maureen Peterson is an ASC member who has lost her parents and her best friend to cancer, her Aunt to Alzheimer's and her brother and close friends to AIDS. Her vision of the Circle of Caring is to create a safe space in which to share our stories, discuss what might help, and just be together in support, in healing, in peace and always in love.

Make Me One With Everything

Sunday, May 3rd ~ 11 AM, Sanctuary and 12:30 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

Lama Surya Das joins Rev. Kim in our high pulpit to release his newest book, Make Me One with Everything: Buddhist Meditations to Awaken from the Illusion of Separation. Lama Surya teaches that, if you've ever felt "at one" with something, you've experienced what he calls "inter-meditation." Based on Tibetan Buddhism's core insights into the inherent essence of who we are, Lama Surya's teachings of shared spirituality offer us a better way to live—not just on the meditation cushion, but in every moment of our lives.

Lama Surya will stay after the service for a visit and book signing. All are welcome!
