CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING

Children's Religious Education begins every Sunday in the sanctuary. Children are sung out near the beginning of the service and gather downstairs for CRE. Children rejoin their families in the sanctuary to end the service. Just off the Hunnewell Chapel is a nursery for fussy babies and their caregivers. The service is piped in, and a rocker, changing table and supplies are available. For information about our CRE program, please contact the church office or see our religious educator.

ALLELUIA!

At Arlington Street Church, we raise a hand and circle two fingers above our heads to signal joyous affirmation.

ANTHEM

To My Old Brown Earth Pete Seeger
arr: Paul Halley (b. 1950)

To my old brown earth And to my old blue sky I'll now give these last few molecules of "I." And you who sing, And you who stand nearby, I do charge you not to cry.	Guard well our human chain, Watch well you keep it strong, As long as sun will shine. And this our home, Keep pure and sweet and green, For now I'm yours And you are also mine.

Today in Children's Religious Education (CRE)

Today we return to our three groups.

- K-2nd graders play "UU Table Football" with Nancy explore how the 7 Principles of Unitarian Universalism play a role in the Super Bowl!
- 2nd-5th graders and Kate explore how Unitarian Universalist values are present, or not, even at the Olympic games!
- 5th-8th graders and youth will remain in the service to experience the life and work of Pete Seeger.

This will be the third Sunday in the Thirty Days of Love, a period of intentional action, service, education, and reflection to focus on this essential work. Ask Laura or Erica for calendars of daily activities and questions for your children during the 30 Days of Love.

If you are new to Arlington Street and would like to learn more about how you or your family can become involved with CRE, come and eat lunch in the Perkins Room after the service. You can also email Erica at elong@ascboston.org for more information about the program and to receive the weekly CRE email newsletter.
