

Today in Family Ministry

Today after the Children's Blessing, Rev. Erica and our children will gather in the Perkins Room for a chalice lighting, a song, meditation, and joys and sorrows. Then, we will learn about how our Muslim neighbors and friends observe the holy month of Ramadan. We will return to the sanctuary at the end of the service to join the Arlington Street Choir for the Recessional.

If you have arrived with a baby or small child who becomes restless, there's a nursery/playroom with the service piped in for your listening pleasure. Go through the leather door to the right of the pulpit and cross through the chapel. The nursery will be on your left before the stairs.

Following the service, Coming of Age will meet in the Program Room from 12:30-2:00pm.

May Share the Plate: The Louis D. Brown Peace Institute Mothers Day Walk for Peace

In 1993, Louis D. Brown was a 15-year-old 10th grader who grew up in Roxbury with very big dreams: college, graduate school, a doctoral degree in aerodynamic engineering. Ultimately, Louis wanted to be the first African-American and youngest-ever President of the United States.

Louis said, "I want young people I went to school with and from my community to be active in my government. However, if things don't change, I'll be alone in the White House, because by the time I become president, my peers will all be dead, addicted to drugs, or in jail." Setting out to improve his community and to be a role model to his peers, he joined Teens Against Gang Violence.

That fall, on his way to a Teens Against Gang Violence meeting, Louis was killed in the crossfire of a gang shootout.

In 1994, his extraordinary mother, Tina Chéry, honored her son's dream by founding The Louis D. Brown Peace Institute. Dedicated to education in peacemaking and nonviolence, the institute also assists survivors of homicide victims. AFFIRMATION AND COVENANT

Love is the spirit
of this congregation,
And service is our gift.
This is our great covenant:
To dwell together in peace,
To speak our truths in love,
And to help one another.

El amor es el espíritu
de nuestra congregación
Y el servicio es nuestro regalo.
Esto es a lo que nos comprometemos:
Convivir en paz,
Hablar nuestras verdades con amor,
Y ayudarnos los unos a los otros.

SILENT REFLECTION, MEDITATION, AND PRAYER

ANTHEM

Barátságunkban text: Reményik Sándor (1890 - 1941)

music: Mark David Buckles (b. 1980)

written for the 2012 Unitarian Universalist musical pilgrimage to our partner congregations in Transylvania

Van egy barátom,
végzetesen más,
És végzetesen mégis egy velem,
Barátságunkban épp
ez a varázs.
Én benne élem éig magamat,
bennem álmodja magát éig.

I have a friend
who is intensely different,
And yet is intensely one with me.
This is the magic of our friendship.
In him, I live in the heavens,
He dreams himself to the heavens
through me.

Ha találkozunk egy más csillagon,
Szerepeinket talán kicserélik.

If we ever meet on another star,
Perhaps our positions
would be reversed.

OUR SHARED RESPONSIBILITY

During the offertory, you are invited to open your heart and engage in the spiritual practice of generosity. For 289 years, the abundant support of our community has allowed Arlington Street Church to remain a beacon for liberal religious values in downtown Boston. Your gifts in the Sunday plate sustain both the church and the larger community – half of the unpledged offering is shared with a partner in our mission of love, service, justice, and peace. As a convenient option, you may text the word GIVE to (617) 300-0509 (all texted gifts support church operations) or scan the QR code.

Thank you for your stewardship and support!

OFFERTORY

Prayer text: Robert F. Langwig
music: Arthur Frackenpohl (b. 1924)

Grant us a common faith
that we shall know the gift of being one,
The death of prejudice,
and the new birth of love.

May the seeds of righteousness come forth
from the common soil of our labors, nourished by the rains of justice
and the warmth of security,
That a harvest of freedom of opportunity
may come for people throughout the world.

Grant us a common faith
that we shall know the gift of being one.

PARISH HIGHLIGHTS

*HYMN 318

We Would Be One

*BENEDICTION AND EXTINGUISHING THE CHALICE

*RECESSIONAL (sung twice; please join in!)

Where You Go (I Will Go) Shoshana Jedwab (b. 1964) choral arrangement: Mark David Buckles (b. 1980)

Where you go I will go, beloved
Where you go I will go
Where you go I will go, beloved
Where you go I will go
For your people are my people
Your people are mine
Your people are my people
Your divine, my divine
