Summer Reading

Buddha's Belly ~ Summer Reading

Buddha's Belly, Arlington Street's reading group of all things Buddha and Buddhist, is on hiatus over the summer. Suggested summer reading is Google engineer and personal growth pioneer Chade-Meng Tan's Search Inside Yourself. Amazon says, "With Search Inside Yourself, Chade-Meng Tan ... offers a proven method for enhancing mindfulness and emotional intelligence....a course in health, happiness, and creativity...."

Buddha's Belly will reconvene on Tuesday, September 10th, from 6:00-7:00, when we will discuss Search Inside Yourself and choose our first book of the fall. All are welcome!

The Wednesdays: Huckleberry Finn

Wednesdays, October 23rd, November 6th & 13th ~ 6:00 PM, The Froth
Please join Professor Alan Helms and Rev. Kim for Arlington Street's fall literary salon: Mark Twain's Huckleberry Finn!

Hemingway said that "All modern American literature comes from one book by Mark Twain called Huckleberry Finn," and generations of readers and writers have agreed. Published in England in 1884, it appeared the next year in the United States and was immediately banned throughout the country. A century and a half later, it's still a controversial book because it forces us to confront the central problem of American life: our national tragedy of slavery.

Professor Helms writes, "It's an extremely important book but also one of the most delightful and memorable novels ever written. Its vivid characters, antic events, and hilarious satire make for compulsive reading. I know of no other American novel that is as much fun and also as profound as Huck Finn." Join us as we explore this towering, necessary, and mesmerizing American masterpiece.

Recommended text: The Norton Critical Edition of "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn" (3rd edition). You'll find cheap copies at Amazon and abebooks.com. But pretty much any edition will work.

COMMUNITY CANDLES OF SORROW & JOY

You are invited to share your sorrows and joys with the congregation by filling out a Candle Card in the back pew on the right-hand side of the sanctuary. Candle Cards are collected until the beginning of the first hymn. After the service, Candle Cards are posted downstairs during coffee hour. You may also submit a candle by Saturday night at the church website, ASCBoston.org, by clicking on "Worship."

Spirit of Life (Hymn 123)

Spirit of Life, come unto me.	Fuente de Amor, ven hacia mí.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.	Y al corazón, cántale tu compasión.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;	Sopla al volar, sube en la mar;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.	Hasta moldear la justicia de la vida
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;	Arráigame, libérame,
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.	Fuente de Amor, ven a mí, ven a mí.

AFFIRMATION AND COVENANT

Love is the spirit
of this congregation,
And service is our gift.
This is our great covenant:
To dwell together in peace,
To speak our truths in love,
And to help one another.

El amor es el espíritu
de nuestra congregación
Y el servicio es nuestro regalo.
Esto es a lo que nos comprometemos:
Convivir en paz,
Hablar nuestras verdades con amor,
Y ayudarnos los unos a los otros.

Today's Speaker

Questioning Lisa Mobayed

Questioning is an orientation to life. It is an affirmation of possibility, an opening to wonder, a valuing of difference, and an embracing of mystery. Questioning should not be confused with its far more limited and limiting cousin—skepticism.

Lisa Mobayed is a recent graduate of Andover Newton Theological School and the ministerial intern at First Parish of Wayland. She resides with her husband and teen-age daughters in both the vibrancy of Newton, Massachusetts and the beautiful stillness of the Monadnock Region of New Hampshire. Lisa considers nature her first gospel and reads other religious texts through a mystical lens.

Marathon Monologues

Friday, July 19th ~ 8:00 pm, EMW Bookstore, 934 Mass Avenue, Cambridge
The Boston Marathon bombings had a huge impact on our city, but not everyone was impacted in the same ways. Where we live, where we work, religious identity, race, and national background were all factors that shaped the experiences of Bostonians during and after the attacks. Many of us had experiences that did not fit in with the mainstream portrayal of events. Marathon Monologues is a performance involving people telling such stories. Former Arlington Street Minister Receives Award

Rev. Farley Wheelwright and posthumously, his spouse Virginia Wheelwright, just received the 2013 Creative Sag-ing Award. Rev. Wheelwright was the Interim Minister at Arlington Street during the ministerial search for Rev. Kim.

The Creative Sag-ing Award recognizes outstanding service and creativity in pursuing new ventures after retirement and building on one's experience in creative ways. After retiring from the ministry, the Wheelwrights remained prominent voices for social justice at General Assembly. They later moved to Mexico where Farley was active in the ministry at San Miguel UU Church for many years. Farley also rebuilt the library collection in the town to become the second largest English-language library in Mexico. He later worked to improve the water service to poor residents outside the town.

Virginia, along with other UUs founded Jovenes Adelante! (Youth Go Forward) and Farley helped with the fundrasing. To date this organization has provided 100 university scholarships for
