Today's Share the Plate: Into the Woods

In partnership with the Harvard Street Neighborhood Health Center and the National Forest Service, forty-eight students and family members from the Mather School in Dorchester and the Hawthorne Youth Community Center in Roxbury recently spent an invigorating, inspiring weekend in Vermont's Green Mountain National Forest. Arlington Street Church is honored and thrilled to be part of this partnership. Today, our collection will contribute to seed money to ensure that this program will continue in the future. For more information, please speak with Rev. George Whitehouse, who chaperoned this year's camping trip and would be thrilled for company next summer!

About Today's Introit

Adinu (Chorus and Solo 1) is a traditional Sufi melody, the text of which is attributed to the Andalusian Moorish Sufi mystic, philosopher, poet, and sage, Ab Abd All h Mu ammad ibn Al ibn Mu ammad ibn Arab al- tim a - (1165-1240). Born and brought up in Spain, and traveling widely in Asia Minor, he died in Damascus. Regarded as one of the most influential figures in world spirituality, his writings numbered more than 350 books, which he considered to be divinely inspired by the prophets Moses, Jesus, and Muhammad. Known as "The Great Master," he believed that love was the dominant existential and universal force. Accordingly, he is, even today, a powerful symbol of inter-religious harmony.

Qudduus (Solo 2) means "Holy" and is a text from Isaiah 6:3, that is central to Christian, Islamic, and Jewish worship. In Islam, Qudduus refers to one of the 99 names of God as found in the Qur'an. The text is strikingly similar to the Christian Sanctus (Latin for "Holy") and is a precursor to it. The melody is derived from a Christian Maronite hymn.

Subhanaka (Solo 3) is a prayer for forgiveness in the Islamic ibtihal tradition. Muslims are taught many such phrases to repeat daily to ask for God's forgiveness.
