

FRIDAY, MARCH 31ST, 2023

Theodore “Theo” Raj Uppal, born March 27th to Emma & Jason Uppal and to big sister Vivi and grandmother Joy Morros.

Much love and congratulations, dear ones, on another addition to the third generation of your Arlington Street family — and ours!

Dearly Beloved,

A Joyous Passover — Chag Pesach Sameach! May all people be free!

Nuns’n’Fun — an evening of bingo, raffles, and hilarity with the Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence — will be graced with a variety of entertainment. On April 29th at 7:00, in addition to the Claudio Ragazzi Quartet, we’ll be joined by Neighborhood Arts Flute Quartet! Thanks to our partners at Ágora and the Celebrity Series of Boston, Michael Avitabile, Sarah Brady, Fernando Brandão, and Cynthia Meyers will appear in the Arlington Street Zoom room, flutes in hand, to play for us! For bingo cards, raffle tickets, and registration for this heaven-sent fundraiser for Arlington Street and our work in the world, please go to <https://nunsnfun.eventbrite.com>.

The Arlington Street Church Choir opens this Sunday's service singing these lines from John Greenleaf Whittier's My Psalm, featuring Bek Zehr on French horn.

No longer forward nor behind
I look in hope or fear,
But, grateful, take the good I find,

The best of now and here....
I break my pilgrim staff, I lay
Aside the toiling oar;
The angel sought so far away
I welcome at my door.

Their anthem is Robert Bridges and Herbert Howells' My Eyes for Beauty Pine.

My eyes for beauty pine
My soul for G*d's grace....

And every gentle heart that burns with true desire
Is lit from eyes that mirror part of that celestial fire

My sermon, a reflection on the perils of distraction and the power of paying attention, is called One World at a Time. We'll all sing Carolyn McDade's Rising Green, Rabbi Shlomo Carlebach's Return Again, and Rev. Dr. Thomas Mikelson's Wake, Now, My Senses. Director of Music Mark David Buckles (guitar and vocals), Hyunju Jung (piano), and Sam LaGrego bring us Jason Mraz's Everything is Sound. It begins

When there is love,
I can't wait to talk about it
When things get rough,
I like to walk with you
Or when it's night,
I like to be the light that's missing
And remind you every minute
Of the future isn't written, not yet

*Faithfully yours, with love,
Kim*

p.s. If you're going to be in Boston this Sunday, Gaby & George Whitehouse invite you to join them after the service for brunch at Precinct Kitchen + Bar (BYO wallet). Please email them at gabygeo@tiac.net to let them know you're coming!

p.p.s. A reminder that on Sunday afternoon at 2:00, Only A Child will be hosting its Spring fundraiser, which will include a luncheon buffet, a large raffle, and a presentation highlighting Only A Child's work with underprivileged youth in Guatemala. For more information, please go to OnlyAChild.org.
