

Talking Our Walk: A Discussion Group for People Affected by Depression

Wednesday, October 20th ~ 5:00 PM, Perkins Room

A wonderful, supportive atmosphere, facilitated by our own John Sacco, awaits in this open discussion group: not a substitute for therapy or medication, but a different kind of healing. The group meets once a month, on the third Wednesday. Please speak with John or Rev. Kim for more information. You are not alone!

The Wednesdays: Death in Five Wednesdays

November 3rd, 10th, and 17th plus December 8th and 15th,
6:00-8:00 PM, Frothingham Library

You're welcome to join Professor Alan Helms and Rev. Kim for as little or as much as you're able for our next Wednesdays, Arlington Street's literary salon, in which we will explore the world's most perennially fascinating, most mysterious, most frightening to many, most cataclysmic to all, most profoundly important subject in the whole of literature: DEATH. There's not a great writer in world literature who hasn't written about it, and we're reading some of the best.

We begin with Tolstoy's Death of Ivan Ilych (November 3rd), a classic of Russian literature which tells of a rich, smug, government official who struggles against the agonizing knowledge that he is slowly dying, a final fact that utterly transforms his life. All are welcome!

CONGREGATIONAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Coffee Hour

Parish Hall, immediately following the worship service

The Sandwich Board team is pleased to provide lunch and other refreshments each Sunday, and we're encouraged to see so many members and friends participating in fellowship after the service. Thank you for the compliments and suggestions you share regarding our menu items. For the next several weeks, we'll offer a survey to assist us in future menu planning.

Join Author & Historian, Cynthia Grant Tucker

TODAY: 12:30 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

(bring your lunch from Sandwich Board)

Please join Rev. Kim, Ellen Spencer, David McClain, and Phyllis Rickett in welcoming our guest for lunch today, the acclaimed Unitarian Universalist historian Dr. Cynthia Grant Tucker.

Cynthia likes to say that her "real" education began only after she'd earned a doctorate in comparative literature and started to teach in the urban Midsouth during an era of social upheaval. As the Vietnam War and the human rights movements expanded her frames of reference, Cynthia's academic focus shifted and settled in women's studies, planting a personal interest in writing biography as a way to rectify history's sins of omission and give silenced stories a voice.

For her past and ongoing work to give women's history a voice, and particularly for lifting up the lives of the first ordained women in her book, Prophetic Sisterhood, the Unitarian Universalist Women's Federation presented her with their Ministry to Women Award at this past June's General Assembly. Recently, Cynthia has published her fifth book, No Silent Witness: The Eliot Parsonage Women and Their Unitarian World. All are welcome!

Repeated, Sundays October 31st & November 21st, 9:30-11:00 am, Carol Smith Room

Join us for a two-part reflection and discussion group in response to Margaret Reagan's recent book The Death of Josseline: Immigration Stories from the Arizona-Mexico Borderlands (Beacon Press, 2010, 218 pp). Detailing heartbreakingly real human stories, The Death of Josseline invites us to consider how we as a religious community might be called to respond to the complex ethical, moral, and spiritual issues presented on the border. The Death of Josseline is being studied as a "common read" by Unitarian Universalist discussion groups across the country in preparation for the 2012 General Assembly to be held in Phoenix, AZ.

This series will be offered twice with the Tuesday sessions facilitated by our Intern Minister, Rebecca Froom, and the Sunday sessions facilitated by Doug Fiero and Sam Gloyd. During the first session we will reflect on the Prologue through Chapter 4. During the second session we will reflect on Chapters 5-10. Copies of the book will be available for sale during coffee hour starting in mid-October.
