We meet in the Clarke Room on the second floor of the church. If you have any questions, please always feel free to contact our Director of Music, Mark David Buckles at MBuckles@ASCBoston.org.

Children's Religious Education Wants You!

Would you enjoy assisting behind the scenes, sharing a story or your spiritual practice, going on a field trip, leading a sex ed class, holding babies, building with legos, or digging in the dirt? If the answer is yes, please contact Beth Robbins at BRobbins@ASCBoston.org.

Transformation Team for Racial Justice

The Transformation Team for Racial Justice is an ongoing task force of Arlington Street Church that seeks to identify and eliminate interpersonal and institutional barriers of racism and oppression, and build a justice-seeking, multiracial, multicultural community. Please email any feedback or questions to Transformation@ASCBoston.org, attend our open meetings on the third Tuesday of the month from 7 - 8:30 p.m. or speak with a team member (Jonah Beukman, Sarah Cooleybeck, Rita Falzarano, Margy Herley, Peter Lowber, Laura Pattison, Nancy Perna, and Barbara Seidl). Membership on the Team requires a one year commitment and anti-racism/anti oppression/multicultural training.

Join the Social Action Committee

Pre-Release Screening of "The Innocent Convicts"

Sunday, October 1st ~ 2:00 PM, Parish Hall

In anticipation of a November debut, Boston-based filmmaker and investigative reporter Osagie "Ossy" Okoruwa comes to Arlington Street Church to present a segment of his feature length film "The Innocent Convicts." This past July, the National Registry of Exonerations listed that, of the thousands of people who have been cleared of wrongful convictions in the past 25 years, 47 percent were black and 40 percent had been falsely incarcerated for at least 10 years before exoneration. Mr. Okoruwa's film could not be more timely. See it - and meet him - before the film's November release. For more information, please watch the trailer: vimeo.com/167383077.

Channing: A Rededication

Sunday, October 1st ~ 2:00 PM, Mt. Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge (meet at Story Chapel)

In the early nineteenth century, William Ellery Channing (born in 1780) was the foremost Unitarian preacher in the U.S. and one of Unitarianism's leading theologians. He served this congregation from 1803 until his death in 1842, when his parishioners erected a beautiful monument in his honor at Mt. Auburn Cemetery. In recent years, his grave site had fallen into disrepair. A recent campaign to restore it to its former glory was a resounding success. Join Rev. Kim and Unitarian Universalists from across the Commonwealth in a celebration of this critical restoration and of Channing's great legacy.
