

Welcome, Families!

During the worship service, children of all ages are invited to join the Family Ministry team for children's joys and sorrows and a lesson/activity from the Unitarian Universalist Tapestry of Faith "Miracles" curriculum. We will leave the sanctuary during the first hymn to gather in the Hunnewell Chapel (just through the leather door to the right of the pulpit). Parents and caregivers are welcome (but not required) to join in. All will return to the sanctuary for the final hymn.

If you have arrived with a baby who becomes restless, there's a nursery/playroom with the service piped in for your listening pleasure. Go through the leather door to the right of the pulpit, cross through the chapel, and go through the first set of doors. The nursery is on your left before the glass doors and the stairs. If you'd like to stay in the service, our child care team is happy take your littles to play in the nursery!

March Share the Plate: Rise Against Hunger

For the seventh year in a row, we are teaming up with Rise Against Hunger to advance their powerful mission of eradicating world hunger by 2030! On the afternoon of March 22nd, we are transforming the Parish Hall into an all-ages assembly line. In just a few hours, we will package rice, soy, dehydrated vegetables, and vitamins into an astonishing 10,000 meals. To be successful, this event requires our participation in packing the meals as well as a significant financial investment. Please give generously to ensure that we can meet our goal of sending love and nourishment to some of the world's most vulnerable people. Thank you for your generosity!

AFFIRMATION AND COVENANT

|---|---|
| Love is the spirit of this congregation, And service is our gift. This is our great covenant: To dwell together in peace, To speak our truths in love, And to help one another. | El amor es el espíritu de nuestra congregación Y el servicio es nuestro regalo. Esto es a lo que nos comprometemos: Convivir en paz, Hablar nuestras verdades con amor, Y ayudarnos los unos a los otros. |

text: Horace (65 – 8 BCE), Odes I, 32

Aaron Larget-Caplan, guitar

Poscimus. Si quid vacui sub umbra lusimus tecum, quod et hunc in annum vivat et pluris, age, dic Latinum, barbite, carmen,

Lesbio primum modulate civi, qui, ferox bello, tamen inter arma, sive iactatam religarat udo litore navem,

Liberum et Musas Veneremque et illi semper haerentem puerum canebat et Lycum nigris oculis nigroque crine decorum.

O decus Phoebi et dapibus supremi grata testudo Iovis, o laborum dulce lenimen, mihi cumque salve rite vocanti.

We are summoned. If amid the empty shadow
I've played anything with you which should live for this year
And more besides, come, my lyre, and Speak out a Latin song.

You, strung first by a man of Lesbos,
Who, though fierce in war, nonetheless when still armed
Had tied up his battered ship
On the moist shore,

And was singing of Liber and the Muses and Venus
And her boy always clinging to her,
And Lycus beautiful with his black eyes
And black hair.

O you – adornment of Phoebus and pleasing bout
At the feasts of Jupiter on high,
O you – sweet balm of my labors,
Hail, whenever I duly call upon you.

OUR SHARED RESPONSIBILITY

During the offertory, you are invited to open your heart and engage in the spiritual practice of generosity. For 290 years, the abundant support of our community has allowed Arlington Street Church to remain a beacon for liberal religious values in downtown Boston.

Your gifts in the Sunday plate sustain both the church and the larger community – half of the unpledged offering is shared with a partner in our mission of love, service, justice, and peace. As a convenient option, you may text the word GIVE to (617) 300-0509 (all texted gifts support church operations) or scan the QR code. Thank you for your stewardship and support!
