FANFARE: THE CHALICE OF THE COVENANT RETURNS

HYMN

Put a Little Love in Your Heart Jackie DeShannon (b. 1941)
arrangement: Mark David Buckles (b. 1980)

Think of your fellow man And the world will be a better place
Lend him a helping hand And the world will be a better place
Put a little love in your heart For you and me, just wait and see
You see it's getting late Just wait and see
Oh, please don't hesitate Take a good look around
Put a little love in your heart And if you're lookin' down
And the world will be a better place Put a little love in your heart
And the world will be a better place And I hope when you decide
For you and me, just wait and see Kindness will be your guide
Another day goes by Put a little love in your heart
And still the children cry Put a little love in your heart (repeat)
Put a little love in your heart
If you want the world to know
We won't let hatred grow
Put a little love in your heart

Today in Family Ministry

Today, after the Children's Blessing, Rev. Dave and our children will gather in the Perkins Room for a chalice lighting, a song, meditation, and joys and sorrows. Then we will take a pause from learning about the Hebrew Bible so we can finish painting our 12-foot long banner that will be carried in the Louis D. Brown Mother's Day Walk For Peace. We will return to the sanctuary at the end of the service to join the Arlington Street Choir for the Recessional.

If you have arrived with a baby or small child who becomes restless, you are welcome to enjoy our nursery/playroom. Go through the leather door to the right of the pulpit and cross through the chapel. The nursery will be on your left before the stairs. The service is piped in for your listening pleasure!

April Share the Plate: The Louis D. Brown Peace Institute Mothers Day Walk for Peace

In 1993, Louis D. Brown was a 15-year-old 10th grader growing up in Roxbury with very big dreams: college, graduate school, a doctoral degree in aerodynamic engineering. Ultimately, Louis wanted to be the first African-American and youngest-ever President of the United States.

Louis said, "I want young people I went to school with and from my community to be active in my government. However, if things don't change, I'll be alone in the White House, because by the time I become president, my peers will all be dead, addicted to drugs, or in jail." Setting out to improve his community and to be a role model to his peers, he joined Teens Against Gang Violence.

That fall, on his way to a Teens Against Gang Violence meeting, Louis was killed in the crossfire of a gang shootout.

In 1994, his extraordinary mother, Tina Chéry, honored her son's dream by founding The Louis D. Brown Peace Institute. Dedicated to education in peacemaking and nonviolence, the institute also assists survivors of homicide victims. For more information, please visit ldbpeaceinstitute.org.

GREETINGS

COVENANT RENEWAL: #YouBelongHere

Sarah Foleno, Josh Bookin, James Foleno

*HYMN

Open the Door Judy Collins (b. 1939)
Mark David Buckles, guitar and vocals

Sometimes I remember the old days
When the world was filled with sorrow
You might have thought I was living
But I was all alone
In my heart the rain was falling
The wind blew and
The night was callin'
Come back, come back, I'm all you've ever known

Chorus

*Open the door and come on in
I'm so glad to see you my friend
You're like a rainbow comin' around the bend
And when I see you happy
Well, it sets my heart free
I'd like to be as good a friend to you
As you are to me*

There were friends who could always see me
Through the haze their smiles would reach me
Saying okay, saying goodbye, saying hello
Soon I knew just what I was after
Was life and love, tears and laughter
Hello, my good friend, hello my darlin'
What do you know

Chorus

I used to think it was only me feeling alone
Not feeling free to be alive to be a friend
Now I know we all have stormy weather
The sun shines through when we're together
I'll be your friend right through to the end

Chorus

OUR SHARED RESPONSIBILITY

During the offertory, you are invited to open your heart and engage in the spiritual practice of generosity. For 289 years, the abundant support of our community has allowed Arlington Street Church to remain a beacon for liberal religious values in downtown Boston. Your gifts in the Sunday plate sustain both the church and the larger community – half of the unpledged offering is shared with a partner in our mission of love, service, justice, and peace. As a convenient option, you may text the word GIVE to (617) 300-0509 (all texted gifts support church operations) or scan the QR code. Thank you for your stewardship and support!

OFFERTORY

The Call text: George Herbert (1593 - 1633)
from Five Mystical Songs music: Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872 - 1958)
John Bitsas, baritone
Come, my Way, my Truth, my Life:
Such a Way, as gives us breath:
Such a Truth, as ends all strife:
Such a Life, as killeth death.

Come, My Light, my Feast, my Strength:
Such a Light, as shows a feast:
Such a Feast, as mends in length:
Such a Strength, as makes his guest.

Come, my Joy, my Love, my Heart:
Such a Joy, as none can move:
Such a Love, as none can part:
Such a Heart, as joys in love.
