Welcome, Little Windows!

Today's Events

Coffee Hour

Gather with Arlington Street Church's congregation in this lively and social environment. To find the Parish Hall, head downstairs at the rear of the sanctuary. All are welcome.

To Renewal House with Love

Today

This is our annual food drive for the Unitarian Universalist Urban Ministry's shelter for women and children escaping domestic violence. Starting today we're collecting "kid food" – think mac'n'cheese, juice boxes, peanut butter and jelly, little boxes of raisins, and other things you can't imagine you ever loved to eat! All food will be delivered to Renewal House on Valentine's Day. Thank you!

You are also invited to support Renewal House by sponsoring a scarf in your name (scarf and donation will be given to Renewal House), or by buying a scarf for yourself (money will be donated to Renewal House). Adult scarves $10; children's scarves $5.

Little Windows

Welcome to guest musicians, Little Windows, who are showcasing the deeply personal, spiritual, and communal value of traditional song. Mark Weems and Julee Glaub perform a mix of Appalachian, Irish music, and traditionally-based originals. Instrumentation includes guitar, fiddle, banjo, flute, piano, and bodhrán.

Today's Spiritual Passion:

The Gift of Natural Health led by John Campbell

Today, 1:00 PM, in the Parish Hall

I would like to offer the gift of natural health to anyone in the church community who is interested in pursuing it, at no charge for my literature or consultation. More than one hundred years of experience by hundreds of naturopathic physicians, enhanced by the findings of Szent-Gyorgyi, Irwin Stone, Linus Pauling, Robert Cathcart, Archie Kalokerinos, and Matthias Rath, have shown that within the human body is a powerful healing system that can be only fully engaged if certain nutrients are provided in therapeutic dosages. I offer a series of health guides, derived from the clinical and research work of many naturopaths and naturopathically-oriented physicians, for improving and maintaining general health and to address specific serious chronic health problems - cardiovascular disease, cancer, AIDS, hepatitis, and certain mental disorders - using therapeutic doses of certain dietary supplements.

At the Social Action Table

Please come to the Social Action Table during coffee hour to...

- * sign the Massachusetts Welcoming Initiative
- * sign a petition to the Canadian government asking them not to deport U.S. war resisters, sponsored by Courage to Resist (or the petition can be signed on-line at www.couragetoresist.org)
- * find out about Senate bill 2406, "Safer Alternatives to Toxic Chemicals in Massachusetts," which went to Governor Patrick's desk on January 9th
- * borrow a DVD from our library
- * get pins to put on Santuario's map, to show from where your ancestors came!

Children's Religious Education

Be a Guest at Our Table! The children will be making cookies today as they explore what it means to give from the hands and the heart. Sharing truly is caring in this Universally Unique principle. Please join us after service for milk and cookies!

Sandwich Board Volunteers Needed

Coffee Hour, as you know, is much more than coffee. Volunteers make soup and sandwiches, cookies, cake, etc for sale at reasonable prices. Net proceeds help sustain church programs. Volunteers are always welcome to help prepare and serve. Please join us!
E-mail Jon Ellertson or Maria Cole through the church office at Office@ASCBoston.org.

Work with Villages Without Walls

Jubilee, Arlington Street Church's Work in the World, has been supporting Villages Without Walls, a youth anti-violence project in Dorchester. Please contact Laura Pattison at Office@ASCBoston.org if you want to be on the list for volunteers willing to help with the rebuilding of Bethel Pentecostal, parent church for Villages without Walls. Sheetrock work continues, but then there will be taping, prep, painting, etc. We usually figure out midweek if a crew will go on Saturday, and what work is available, and we are still thinking of a possible weekday crew. If you'd like to help, email Laura, even if you're not sure about the details!

The upcoming study circles with Villages Without Walls and Bethel are also a part of Jubilee. Please contact Laura about the study circles to be held February 25th and March 3rd at 6:00 PM.

Upcoming Spiritual Passions

Sharing Great Music

Sunday, February 17th, in the Hunnewell Chapel

Join us for an afternoon of sharing great music! Mark Buckles, our acting music director, will bring recordings from a variety of cultures and traditions to hear and discuss. You are invited to bring and share a recording of a song or piece that has particular spiritual significance to you.

Mark David Buckles is a composer, conductor, singer, and pianist. He is captivated by the spiritual and the emotional, and believes music is one of the most positive unifying forces in human relations. Mark holds a M.M. in Choral Conducting from Boston University and a B.M. in Composition from the University of Michigan. In addition to his role as the acting director of music at Arlington Street Church, Mark is the co-founder and music director of Juventas, a contemporary music ensemble dedicated to the music of today's young composers.

Introduction to Meditation

Sunday, February 24th

Don't just do something; sit there! And when you sit, just sit. Very simple directives...simply, but not easy! Join Arlington Street Church's senior minister, Rev. Kim K. Crawford Harvie, and members of Arlington Street Zen Center for Meditation 101, including answers to such burning questions such as, "Where do I put my legs?" and "How do I stop thinking (without going to sleep)?" This ancient spiritual practice will bring profound benefits not just to you, but to all whose life yours touches. Wear comfortable clothing (and yes, you may meditate in a chair!).

Matching Gifts

Double Your Contribution to Arlington Street Church!

Many employers are encouraging their employees to give to non-profit organizations by matching a contribution from the employee with a contribution from the employer, usually dollar-for-dollar.

Does your employer offer matching gifts? Check with your human resources office to see if you can participate in a matching program. You can double your gift to Arlington Street Church at no cost to you!

Planning for Pride

Tuesday, March 4th, 5:00 PM – 6:00 PM, in the Perkins Room

Every year, Arlington Street Church hosts Unitarian Universalists and friends from all over New England for a celebratory worship service prior to the start of the Boston Pride parade. After the service, we also march together in the parade. Historically, we have had one of the largest groups marching in the parade, and the crowd enthusiastically recognizes us for our historic role in the fight for equal rights for gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender people. This year's Pride parade is Saturday June 14th.

If you are interested in offering suggestion to the Worship Committee for the worship service, or if you are interested in joining one of the organizational teams, please come to an open meeting Tuesday March 4 from 5-6 p.m. in the Perkins Room. If you cannot come to the meeting, but want to provide input or volunteer to be on a team, please email worship@ascboston.org or give your name to Rev. Kim.
