Wednesday, June 16th ~ 5:00 PM – 7:00 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

For two years, Phil traveled the length and breadth of the United States, talking candidly with LGBTQ people about their lives. This book, featuring 44 wonderful profiles, is the result.

“This collection of interviews with gay activists and artists is like going to dinner with people you’d love to know but don’t, and Phil Gambone is the perfect stand-in for the reader: impressively prepared, sympathetic, and smart.” – Andrew Holleran, author of Grief: A Novel

Actually, you do know one of these folks quite well! Can you guess? Please join her to celebrate the publication of this landmark work, which chronicles today's LGBTQ community.

TODAY: Sunday, June 13th ~ 11:00 AM, Sanctuary

Arlington Street Church welcomes the choir of Church of the River, the First Unitarian Church of Memphis, led by Music Director Charles Schulz. Our own Arlington Street Choir will combine with the choir of Church of the River in singing several pieces throughout the service, including Randall Thompson's beautiful setting of Robert's Frost's "The Road Not Taken" and Aaron Copland's uplifting anthem "Zion's Walls".

and 4:00 PM, in the Hunnewell Chapel

Arlington Street Church welcomes back our Artists in Residence, the Longwood Symphony Orchestra! The Longwood Symphony is comprised primarily of health care professionals and all of their proceeds benefit medically-related nonprofits. Members of the orchestra will perform during the Sunday morning worship service, and then perform a full concert of chamber music in the afternoon.

Add More Music to Your Life!

The choir is open to all interested singers able to make a commitment to the choir's schedule. Attendance each week is not mandatory, though members find that it's difficult to function effectively if they miss more than a quarter of the rehearsals. We rehearse on Thursdays from 7:00–9:00 pm in the Clarke Room on the second floor of the church. If you have any questions, please always feel free to contact our Director of Music, Mark David Buckles, who is available at the front of the sanctuary following the service or via email at MBuckles@ASCBoston.org.
