

In other words, these Shakespeare courses are not for the faint of heart. But since it's generally true that "as ye sow, so shall ye reap," the rewards will be enormous. For many of us, this will be one of the great experiences of our lives! All are welcome!

Special Guest Mike Ward Releases His New Book from the High Pulpit!

Sunday, October 30th ~ 12:30 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

Rev. Kim is thrilled to be joined in the pulpit by her longtime friend, Mike Ward, who will read from his memoir - officially to be published the next day! In The Sea is Quiet Tonight, Mike returns to the early years of the AIDS epidemic and chronicles in candid detail his partner Mark's decline and eventual death. By looking back on these devastating events, the author not only honors a generation lost to the illness but also opens a vital window onto the past when HIV/AIDS was a death sentence. Following the service, join Mike for further reading, discussion, and breaking out the very first shipment of his books to sign them for us! Uncomfortable Conversations

Sundays, October 30th & November 13th ~ 12:30 PM, Carol Smith Room

The Transformation Team for Racial Justice offers this time and space for facilitated discussion and continuing conversation about developing an anti-racist worldview. We plan to hold these conversations periodically at Arlington Street Church. All are welcome and no RSVP is needed. For more information or to suggest discussion topics in advance, email transformation@ascboston.org.

Have You Made Your Pledge Yet?

If you have not yet made a financial pledge of support to Arlington Street for this church year, it's not too late! This church is a self-supporting community that relies on the generosity of members to fund everything from our transcendent worship to our mundane electric bill. Coordinating your values with where your money goes is a powerful spiritual practice! Plus, pledging helps the church plan responsibly for the year ahead. We are very close to reaching our goal of $260,000, which will allow for a fully-funded budget. Covenant Renewal forms are available in the pews and at ASCBoston.org. Please submit your pledge today!

ARLINGTON STREET MINISTRIES

Join the Arlington Street Choir this Fall!

Every Thursday ~ 7:00 PM, Clarke Room

Experience the spiritual practice of communal singing! Take just a couple of hours out of your week to create something beautiful, make friends, and add more music to your life!

Musicians and non-musicians are welcome - we are a mix of professionals and amateurs. We rehearse every Thursday and are always accepting new members. We meet in the Clarke Room on the second floor of the church. If you have any questions, please always feel free to contact our Director of Music, Mark David Buckles at MBuckles@ASCBoston.org

SUGGESTION BOX

The staff and leadership of Arlington Street Church welcome your ideas, comments, and suggestions. If you have a thought to share about what works well or what could be improved, please send a message to Comments@ASCBoston.org. The Church's administrative assistant will pass your message on to the appropriate people. Please speak your "truths in love" and include your name and contact information so we can follow up. Thanks!

SCHEDULING EVENTS AT ARLINGTON STREET CHURCH

All issues dealing with building usage, (both congregational use and rentals), must be coordinated by Jeffrey Bouchard, Administrative Assistant and Facilities Manager. Jeffrey is able to help you Monday - Friday, 8:00 AM - 3:00 PM. He can be reached by phone at 617.536.7050 ext. 14 or by e-mail at JBouchard@ASCBoston.org.

INSIDE SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Please email all Sunday "Inside" announcements before Tuesday noon to publications@ascboston.org. Laurinda O'Connor will receive your email and will compile the announcements for publication. Materials should be legible, signed, and fully composed. Space is limited, so some editing may be necessary. Please note that we only publish submissions related to Arlington Street events or the wider Unitarian Universalist community.

OUR CARING COMMUNITY—EMERGENCIES

In the event of a disruption or major transition in the life of an Arlington Street member, please inform the church office, 617.536.7050. Our staff and ministers will be in touch to lend support.

SECURITY NOTE

This is an urban church. Please do not leave your valuables unattended!

NEWS FROM THE SOUL OF SUNDAY

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 2ND, 2016

TODAY

Coffee Hour and Lunch

Today ~ Immediately following worship, Parish Hall

Let's all gather downstairs for coffee, soup, sandwiches, and community! If you're visiting Arlington Street Church or would like information about Unitarian Universalism, please visit the Welcome Table.

We welcome additional volunteers to help with food preparation and, especially, with clean-up. To volunteer, and for more information about joining our team, please stop by the kitchen. Be sure to dip an apple in honey for a sweet new year!

Indulge 2017 Planning Meeting

Today ~ 12:30 PM, Clarke Room

Join the planning as we start to consider decorations, menu, and auction details for our spring time fundraiser. Come be a part of helping to make this fun night a reality!

Arlington Street Circle of Caring

Today & Sundays, Oct. 16th and 30th ~ 12:45 PM, Carol Smith Room

Are you battling illness, caring for someone who is ill, struggling with isolation or in the process of losing someone you love? Or have you already lost someone, and are you trying to cope with the heartbreak and anger that accompany loss and grief? If you are currently struggling, or have experienced this or any other type of life crisis and would like to share how you made it through, then please join the Caring Circle. Maureen Peterson is an ASC member who has lost her parents and her best friend to cancer and her brother and close friends to AIDS. Lisa Kirk, who officially joined the ASC Community last year has lead grief and small support groups for other congregations and has lots of experience and insight to share with the group.

Their vision of the Circle of Caring is to create a safe space in which to share our stories, discuss what might help, and just be together in support, in healing, in peace and always in love.

Turning the Heart: A Forgiveness Meditation

Today, 12:45 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

The Jewish High Holy Days invite us into the spirit of teshuvah, a turning of the heart and a repairing of relationships. All are welcome to this one-hour exercise in forgiveness, led by our affiliated minister, Rev. Joanna Lubkin. Please plan on staying for the entire time to have a full experience.

THIS WEEK

Kundalini Yoga Class

Every Wednesday ~ 6:00 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

Experience fun exercises and poses, breathing techniques, chanting, meditation, and deep relaxation in this unique class. Moving energy through your body brings positive change and growth. There is a $10 charge that goes to the church. First class is free!

The Wednesdays Literary Salon: An Autumn Evening with Robert Frost

Wednesday, October 5th ~ 6:00 PM, The Frothingham Library

Please join Professor Alan Helms and Rev. Kim for a discussion of Robert Frost's autumn poems. We will be reading the selections listed below, which are available in a packet this Sunday or in the church office. Please feel free to invite friends, neighbors, co-workers, and anyone who might enjoy an evening of poetry with the good professor. Happy autumn!

My November Guest; Mowing; Going for Water; The Tuft of Flowers; October; Reluctance; After Apple-Picking; The Exposed Nest; Gathering Leaves; The Bear; Clear and Colder; November

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Don't Miss Arlington Street's Faithify Campaign!

Arlington Street members and friends from around the country are coming together to fund our historic accessibility project. Thanks to all who have already made generous donations, we are well on the way to meeting our goal of raising $5,000 in 30 days on Faithify, the UU crowdfunding platform. Will your contribution be the one that puts us over the top? Help us finish construction on the ramp by making your gift today at www.tinyurl.com/ArlingtonStreetRamp.

HONK - Festival of Activist Street Bands

Sunday, October 9th ~ 11:00 AM, Davis Square

Arlington Street members will be joining forces with area UUs to march together under the name New England Region Religious Education Programs. Please plan to dress in colorful clothes and join us in celebrating the 11th year of the amazing HONK! parade. There will be no formal CRE programming at the church on the 9th, but all are welcome to gather for a pre-march breakfast at the Cooleybeck home at 10:00. We will assemble in Davis Square at 11:00 am, and the march begins at noon. For more information, please contact Laura Evonne (LES@ASCBoston.org) or visit honkfest.org.

Esbat Essentials: Defining Deity

Sunday, October 9th ~ 1:00 PM, Clarke Room

Please join us for a small group discussion on who and what deity is and how deity affects our daily lives. Whether you have one god, one hundred gods, or no gods, you are most welcome! Grab some lunch and join us in the Clarke Room!

We invite you to cut out this calendar or view the full calendar at ASCBoston.org

Are you experiencing or anticipating the loss of a beloved animal companion? Join UU Rev. Eliza Blanchard in a pet loss healing circle to share stories, support one another, and light candles of sorrow and memory. The gathering is free and open to all. For more information, call Rev. Blanchard at 774-551-6071.

Pru In Review

Tuesday, October 18th ~ 6:00 PM, Perkins Room

Arlington Street's governing body (affectionately known as "The Pru") has the following highlights to share from the first Prudential Committee meeting of the year. The church is finalizing a new contract for construction on the ramp project and expects work to begin soon. Rev. Kim reported that the Covenant Renewal Team has already begun meeting and is committed to making stewardship a year-round activity. A Pru Retreat has been scheduled for October 1st. A new Finance Committee is in place and hard at work already under the leadership of recently-elected Treasurer, Art Nava.

Pru meetings are open to any church member interested in attending, and meeting minutes are available upon request.

Arlington Street's Literary Salon, The Wednesdays: Shakespeare

Wednesdays ~ 6:00 PM, Frothingham Library

October 26th ~ A Midsummer Night's Dream

November 9th ~ The Merchant of Venice

November 16th ~ Henry IV, part 1 (we finally meet Falstaff!)

November 30th ~ Henry IV, part 2

Professor Alan Helms and Rev. Kim welcome you to the third installment of the Wednesdays Shakespearathon! Reading all 38 of Shakespeare's plays is admittedly a huge ambition, but Shakespeare is, by universal consent, not only the greatest writer in the English language, but one of the immortals of world literature. We'll need patience with archaic language while attending to a plethora of footnotes (there's no doing without them unless you live in a world where you cut your meat with a bodkin and your children say their orizons at bedtime).
