

Join the Transformation Team for Racial Justice

The Transformation Team for Racial Justice is an ongoing task force of Arlington Street Church that seeks to identify and eliminate interpersonal and institutional barriers of racism and oppression, and build a justice-seeking, multiracial, multicultural community. If you have suggestions, questions, comments, or concerns for the Team, please email transformation@ascboston.org, attend our open meetings on the third Tuesday of every month from 7 - 8:30 pm, or speak with a team member (Jonah Beukman, Chris Cobb, Sarah Cooleybeck, Rita Falzarano, Margy Herley, Laura Pattison, Barbara Seidl, and Julia Simon). These poems are often overlooked because of the universal focus on “Song of Myself,” but in any accounting of Whitman’s accomplishment all four are essential reading. You can find all these poems on the web; we’ll discuss one per gathering. All are welcome!

 Join the Social Action Committee

Join our team and get support on the social action topic you are passionate about: voting rights, climate change, economic inequality, gun violence, Citizens United, homelessness, and more. “The service begins when the service ends.”

 Environmental Justice & Climate Crisis Team

Compost is decayed organic material, like food and paper, that can end up as trash—or be put to many eco-friendly uses, such as fertilizer. Why compost? If we don't, food waste ends up in a landfill or an incinerator. As we work to mitigate climate change, one important strategy is to reduce trash. The EPA estimates more food (75 billion+ pounds per year) reaches landfills and incinerators than any other material in trash. Members of this team plan to tackle the task of finding creative uses for the compostable waste ASC generates. Stay tuned!

 Join the Ushers

Are you looking for a fun way to offer service and meet others in the congregation? Consider joining the lead ushers team! For more information, please contact Philip Roberts or Kevin Tyrrell (ushers@ASCBoston.org or 617-536-7050).
