issue? Let's begin by launching a Task Force on Immigrant Justice. The first meeting will be at the church on Monday, March 27th. ALL are invited! Sponsored by the Social Action Committee.

Buddha's Belly ~ The Buddhist Book Discussion and Arlington Street Zen Center

Tuesday, March 28th ~ 6:00 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

Buddha's Belly and Arlington Street Zen Center (feel free to come to one or both) meet every 2nd and 4th Tuesday.

6:00 Buddha's Belly: We will continue our discussion of The Book of Joy by His Holiness The Dalai Lama and Bishop Desmond Tutu. Please read through the end of Day 1 (page 78).

7:00 Arlington Street Zen Center: Our gathering includes seated and walking meditations, a dharma talk, and conversation. If you'd like to join Rev. Kim and walk in the Public Garden (optional!), please dress for the weather. Beginners and experienced meditators from all traditions are warmly welcome.

Arlington Street's Literary Salon, The Wednesdays: Shakespeare

Wednesdays ~ 6:00 PM, Frothingham Library

March 29th ~ Henry V April 12th ~ Much Ado About Nothing

April 26th ~ Julius Caesar May 10th ~ As You Like It

Prof. Alan Helms and Rev. Kim welcome you to the next installment of the Wednesdays Shakespearathon! Reading all 38 of Shakespeare's plays is admittedly a huge ambition, but Shakespeare is, by universal consent, not only the greatest writer in the English language, but one of the immortals of world literature. We'll need patience with archaic language while attending to a plethora of footnotes (there's no doing without them unless you live in a world where you cut your meat with a bodkin and your children say their orizons at bedtime). In other words, these Shakespeare courses are not for the faint of heart. But since it's generally true that "as ye sow, so shall ye reap," the rewards will be enormous. For many of us, this will be one of the great experiences of our lives! All are welcome!

Kundalini Yoga Class

Every Wednesday ~ 6:00 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

Experience fun exercises and poses, breathing techniques, chanting, meditation, and deep relaxation in this unique class. Moving energy through your body brings positive change and growth. There is a $10 charge that goes to the church. First class is free!

Black Lives Matter & Unitarian Universalism Lecture Series

Friday, March 31st ~ 6:00 PM, Rev. Mark Morrison-Reed at First Church in Boston (66 Marlborough Street)

Saturday, April 1st ~ 3:00 PM, Rev. Rosemary Bray McNatt at First Parish in Cambridge (3 Church Street)

Who were the African American leaders in Unitarian, Universalist, and Unitarian Universalist congregations? Why don't today's UUs know about our black ancestors? What is the relationship between this "black hole" in white consciousness and the contemporary Black Lives Matter movement? The Minns Lectures Committee is honored to host these leading UU historians, ethicists, and activists to present their research and address these critical questions. Each lecture will be followed by a wine and cheese reception. Learn more and register at no cost at www.minnslectures.org.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Living in the Cave: Addiction and Shame with Peg O'Connor

Sunday, April 2nd ~ 1:00 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

Plato's famous allegory of the cave is a way to understand some dimensions of addiction, relapse, and recovery. As useful as the allegory may be, it does raise an important question: Why are some people in the cave in the first place? This talk explores structural dimensions of oppression and their relation to addiction and how shame can be both a cause and a consequence of addiction. Peg O'Connor is the author of Life on the Rocks: Finding Meaning in Addiction and Recovery and the popular "Philosophy Stirred, Not Shaken" blog on psychologytoday.com. She is also a columnist for the Pro Talk series on rehab.com and served as chair of the 2015 Nobel Conference on Addiction. Peg is a recovering alcoholic who believes that philosophy helped her to get and stay sober.

Their bravery and determination saved the lives of all 20 passengers onboard. Today, Sarah lives in Germany with her family and helps Syrian refugees in Greece rebuild their lives. Please RSVP through the Facebook event "A Syrian refugee's journey of courage and hope."
