

Children's Programming

The Children's Religious Education (CRE) program begins each Sunday in the sanctuary. After the opening hymn, children and youth are sung out to gather downstairs for age-appropriate CRE groups. Each group begins with a ritual of sharing sorrows and joys before their lesson. They will rejoin the larger community in the sanctuary to end the service together.

Next to the Hunnewell Chapel, there is a nursery for restless babies and their caregivers. This space offers a rocking chair, changing table with supplies, and a live audio feed of the service. For more information about children's programming at Arlington Street Church, please contact Laura Evonne Steinman, Director of CRE, at LES@ASCBoston.org.

Today CRE groups are gathering in the Clarke room (upstairs) for a CRE worship service about race relationships in our communities. Harvard Divinity School student Jaimie Dingus, our CRE assistant, is leading this service.

Laura Evonne Steinman, Our Director of CRE, is in Chicago this Sunday at the Jewish for Peace (JVP) National meeting.

April Share the Plate: Arlington Street's Boston Marathon Charity Runners

Our own Nikki DeRome and Melissa Dlugokecki will be running Boston on April 17th!

Nikki will be running for The Hoyt Foundation, which aspires to build the individual character, self-confidence, and self-esteem of young people with disabilities through inclusion in all facets of daily life. Nikki runs as a member of Team Hoyt, founded by Dick and Rick Hoyt, the father-son wheelchair team that has inspired thousands of people, both disabled and able-bodied. Nikki runs in memory of her mother, Denise Derome.

Melissa will be running for Team Leyden, raising funds for Boston Children's Hospital. Named in memory of Melissa's infant daughter, Team Leyden's mission is to positively impact others in the face of adversity and to help fuel research to prevent cases such as Leyden's while supporting the unmatched quality of care they provide.

INTROIT

No Longer Forward nor Behind

text: John Greenleaf Whittier (1807 - 1892)

music: English Folk Melody

No longer forward nor behind I look in hope or fear;
But, grateful, take the good I find, the best of now and here.
I break my pilgrim staff, I lay aside the toiling oar;
The angel sought so far away I welcome at my door.

For all the jarring notes of life seem blending in a psalm,
And all the angles of its strife slow rounding into calm.
And so the shadows fall apart, and so the west winds play;
And all the windows of my heart I open to the day.

Your gifts in the Sunday plate sustain both the church and the larger community – half of the offering is shared with a partner in our mission of love, service, justice, and peace. As a convenient option, you may text the word GIVE to 617-300-0509 or scan the QR code.

Thank you for your stewardship and support!
