Arlington Street’s Literary Salon, The Wednesdays: Ovid

Wednesdays, September 19th, October 3rd, and 17th ~ 6:00 - 8:00 PM
The Vendome, 160 Commonwealth Ave.

Ovid’s “Metamorphoses” is one of the most influential works in Western culture, having inspired Dante, Boccaccio, Chaucer, and Shakespeare among countless others. In fact, “Metamorphoses” was Shakespeare’s favorite book (he read it in Latin), and it’s easy to see why. The stories it contains are endlessly fascinating: Zeus transformed into a shower of gold to ravish Danae, Tiresias turned into a woman and then back into a man, Orpheus torn to shreds by furious Maenads. It runs from the creation of the world to the death of Julius Caesar, containing over 250 narratives in 15 books. Join Rev Kim and Professor Alan for three sessions and discover why this is one of the most beloved works in all of world literature. We’ll be reading the Rolfe Humphries translation published by Indiana University Press. Amazon has many new copies from $5.00, & you can find used copies even cheaper. All are welcome!

As a convenient option, you may text the word GIVE to 617-300-0509 or scan the QR code.

Today's Speaker

A Unitarian Universalist pastor, singer-songwriter, and former environmental lawyer, Rev. Fred Small is Minister for Climate Justice at Arlington Street Church. Cited by Bill McKibben as “one of the key figures in the religious environmental surge,” Fred left parish ministry in 2015 to devote his energies to climate advocacy.

Speaking on Sunday, July 15TH

Reclaiming Ritual ..... Alison Jablonsky

How do we understand and live within rituals? How have we been welcomed or outcasted by rituals? Explore how we as Unitarian Universalists can reclaim rituals as a tool for reconciliation, belonging, and justice.

Alison Jablonsky is a member of Arlington Street Church and is doing her ministerial internship at Massachusetts General Hospital, where she serves as a Resident Chaplain. Ali loves learning about the sacred from her staff, patients, and their loved ones. ### SUMMER WORSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Summertime at Arlington Street

The program staff and the Arlington Street Choir are away for the summer, but will be back for worship on September 9th. Today and every Sunday through Labor Day, we are grateful to our musicians, our preachers, the volunteer team, and Ali Jablonski, our Summer Student Minister, for this beautiful worship service! Next to the Hunnewell Chapel, there is a nursery for restless babies and their caregivers. This space offers a rocking chair, changing table with supplies, and a live audio feed of the service.

Should you need a minister over the summer, please call the church office at 617-536-7050. The admin staff is always here for you; Jeffrey, and Brad are glad to help! Happy summer, one and all!

During summer the best way to stay informed on all of the church's activities is to visit our website, ASCBoston.org and click on “Calendar.” Jeff Bouchard, our congregational administrator/facilities manager, keeps it current.

Coffee Hour

Immediately following the service in the Parish Hall

Let's all gather downstairs for beverages, light lunch, & community!

ASC Cares Table on Hiatus

For the past year, the Arlington St. Cares Committee—coordinated by Helen Kobek—has held a space in the parish hall directly after Sunday service for members of the community to sign cards for those who have shared candles of sorrow and joy. The table will be on hiatus during summer worship, between July 1st and September 2nd. We will return on September 9th. We are also looking for volunteers to hold the space once a month—an ideal commitment for someone who is only able to be at ASC on Sunday mornings! If you are interested in helping during the 2018-2019 church year, please contact the table coordinator Anna Clutterbuck-Cook at Office@ASCBoston.org.

Kundalini Yoga Class

Every Wednesday ~ 6:00 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

Experience fun exercises and poses, breathing techniques, chanting, meditation, and deep relaxation in this unique class. Moving energy through your body brings positive change and growth. There is a $10 charge that goes to the church. First class is free!

Summer Reading

Buddha's Belly: Arlington Street's Buddhist book group is reading Chögyam Trungpa's Shambhala: The Sacred Path of the Warrior. All are welcome to join in the discussion on Tuesday, September 11th at 6:00 pm.

Intersectional Book Group: Join Rev. Kim for the eighth in our series of occasional discussions about books with intersectional themes. Our next book is When They Call You a Terrorist: A Black Lives Matter Memoir, by Asha Bandele and Patrisse Cullors. We'll meet to discuss it on Monday, September 17th at 5:30 pm.

Visitors Center Is Open for Tours!

Sundays 1:00-4:00 PM and Monday through Saturday from 10:00 AM-3:00 PM (closed Tuesdays)

Greeters Needed This Summer!

Do you want to meet people from all over the world? Would you enjoy sharing the beauty of our Tiffany Windows with others? If so, consider becoming a volunteer greeter with our Visitors Center! Greeters serve as friendly faces at the Arlington Street entrance, welcoming visitors and receiving donations. No experience is necessary, and scheduling is flexible! If you are interested or want to learn more, please contact Alissa Butler at abutler@ascboston.org.
