

Children's Religious Education Wants You!

Would you enjoy assisting behind the scenes, sharing a story or your spiritual practice, going on a field trip, leading a sex ed class, holding babies, building with legos, or digging in the dirt? If the answer is yes, please contact Laura or Erica after Labor Day for more information at CRE@ASCBoston.org.

Join the Social Action Committee in the Fall

Join the committee and bring a social action topic that concerns you: voting rights, climate change, economic inequality, gun violence, Citizens United, homelessness, etc. The committee will support you! In September, the committee resumes meeting on the second Sunday of each month at 9:30 AM. For more information, contact Art Judge at socialaction@ASCBoston.org. "The service begins when the service ends."

Meditation in Everyday Life

Mondays, September 28th - October 26th ~ 6:00-8:00 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

By making a deep connection to the present moment and understanding our mind through the practice of meditation, we can learn to finally make friends with ourselves.

Meditation in Everyday Life is a 5-week course that teaches mindfulness meditation and shows us how this practice can improve our daily lives in the most practical sense. We experience what happens when we stop avoiding ourselves and the present moment and practice simply being with whatever is going on in our lives. We learn to cultivate courage and stability in the daily complexities of jobs, responsibilities, relationships, and the everyday desires, concerns and uncertainties we all face.

Animal Issues Group

Do you believe in kindness toward animals, yet are uneasy about the ways animals are treated in today's world? Have you considered switching to a plant based diet, but making changes seems overwhelming? Do you feel compassion for others should be as inclusive as possible? If you would like to see animal issues as part of our social action initiatives, please email the social action committee at socialaction@ASCBoston.org, and place "animal issues" in the subject line. We can discuss how to make changes in our daily lives, support the national Unitarian Universalist Animal Ministry, and educate interested members of our congregation about living more mercifully, healthfully, and sustainably.

Elizabeth (Dinny) Fletcher is a lifelong animal lover, and current board member of the Boston Vegetarian Society. She also volunteers for the Massachusetts Animal Rights Coalition (MARC). Dinny would welcome any level of participation or discussion of animal issues.

Spirit of Life (Hymn 123)

Spirit of Life, come unto me.	Fuente de Amor, ven hacia mí.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.	Y al corazón, cántale tu compasión.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;	Sopla al volar, sube en la mar;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.	Hasta moldear la justicia de la vida
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;	Arráigame, libérame,
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.	Fuente de Amor, ven a mí, ven a mí.

AFFIRMATION AND COVENANT

*Love is the spirit
of this congregation,
And service is our gift.
This is our great covenant:
To dwell together in peace,
To speak our truths in love,
And to help one another.*

*El amor es el espíritu
de nuestra congregación
Y el servicio es nuestro regalo.
Esto es a lo que nos comprometemos:
Convivir en paz,
Hablar nuestras verdades con amor,
Y ayudarnos los unos a los otros.*

Today's Speaker and Guest Musician

Liz Weber is excited to be back in the pulpit at ASC and especially excited to work in collaboration with Herb Tyson. As a seminarian at Andover Newton Theological School, Liz is preparing for a ministry as a hospital chaplain; this summer she was a chaplain intern at Boston Medical Center. Liz is also an American Sign Language interpreter. She specializes in medical, educational, and religious interpreting. Liz has been part of the ASC community since 2004.

Herb Tyson is a retired labor economist, who now devotes his time as a Unitarian Universalist troUbadUr. All of the proceeds from his music are donated to the Katie Tyson Fund for Youth and Young Adult Ministries, which is administered by the Unitarian Universalist Association. The fund is dedicated to nurturing the sparks of leadership in our youth and young adults. For more information, you can visit his singer-songwriter page on Facebook and at <http://www.uua.org/giving/funds/tyson-fund>.

Speaking on Sunday, August 30th

We're All In This Together ~ Rick Cresta

Rick Cresta is a longtime member of ASC. He is a clinical social worker specializing in work with court-involved adolescents. He is also a part-time faculty member at Boston University's School of Social Work. In addition he provides consultation and training for several state and private agencies throughout the region. His passions include social justice, yoga, biking, and nature.

Rick's sermon will explore how we are all interconnected and how accepting this is in our individual and collective best interest.

SUMMER WORSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Summertime at Arlington Street

Every Sunday through Labor Day, a different member of the Arlington Street community will be preaching, while Rev. Kim, Mark, and Laura Evonne are away on summer break. Should you need a minister over the summer, please call the church office at 617-536-7050. The admin staff is always here for you; Jeffrey, and Brad are glad to help! Happy summer, one and all!

During summer, life at Arlington Street Church slows down and Inside Arlington Street Church is published in this leaner format. Until Homecoming Sunday Service on September 13th, the best way to stay informed on all of the church's activities is to visit our website, ASCBoston.org and click on "Calendar." Jeff Bouchard, our facilities manager, keeps it current.

Childcare during Summer Worship Services

The formal CRE program begins again on Sunday, September 13th. This summer, Arlington Street youth and adult volunteers will be here to care for elementary-aged children during the service. Please meet them at the back of the sanctuary before the service begins.

We ask that older children stay with their families in the service. Very young children can either stay in the service or use the nursery where the service piped in.

Social Hour and Lunch

Immediately following the service in the Parish Hall

The Sandwich Board continues to serve lunch all summer long, featuring cold soups, sandwiches, salads, watermelon and other seasonal items. Volunteers to help with food preparation and, especially, clean-up, are always encouraged to stop by the kitchen on Sunday or contact Jon Ellertson.
