Calling All Angels!

Well, Choir Angels that is. Today is Choir Sunday and its a musical offering to our entire community as part of Thanksgiving Sunday. In order to make today happen, we to need the support of the entire community. Expenses for the performance exceed $1,400! If you can support music, at any level, it would be appreciated. Specific angels are also sought: a gift of $120 makes you an "Instrumental Angel" and $160 a "Section Angel." In the offertory plate, just leave a check or envelope with "Choir Angel" marked in the memo line. Many thanks to those who have already become Angels for this concert – your support is gratefully appreciated!

Upcoming Worship Highlights

A Service of Celebration and Commitment

Monday, November 24th, 6:00 PM in the Sanctuary

All are welcome to join us for this service of celebration and commitment. Join together as we share our joy and resolve in light of the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court ruling in support of same-sex marriage. This service will be sponsored by the Religious Coalition for the Freedom to Marry. Join us in commemoration of this historic milestone!

World AIDS Day

Monday, December 1st, 5:30 PM

You are invited to join us for two very special World AIDS Day observances. At 5:30 PM, we will leave ASC and walk to the Cyclorama on Tremont Street, where we will visit this year's installation of Michael Dowling's magnificent medicine wheel. The city's religious leaders will be giving blessings on the hour; Kim's blessing, on behalf of our congregation, will be at 6:00 PM.

At 7:00 PM, we will leave the Cyclorama and walk back to ASC, where we are hosting a service of remembrance and hope produced by the Boston Living Center (where Kim serves as a volunteer chaplain). You may want to bring candles and mementos for the medicine wheel or for the altar at ASC. Everyone is welcome!

Christmas Sunday

Sunday, December 21st, 11:00 am

Come worship as we celebrate the Solstice, Kwanzaa, kindle the Menorah for the third night of Chanukah, and sing our favorite Christmas carols (who would believe how much – and how loudly – we love to sing those words?!). After the service, there will be a wonderful holiday brunch, with more music and merriment!

The Arlington Street Center for Liberal Religious Inquiry and Spiritual Practice

Please note: below is a listing of select upcoming events in the ASCenter. For further information on these and other courses and programs, and to register, please visit the ASCenter Table in the Parish Hall during today's Coffee Hour or online.

Kundalini Yoga

Wednesdays in the Chapel, 6:00 PM (not meeting November 26th)

Kundalini Yoga, the Yoga of Awareness, consists of simple yogic techniques that can be enjoyed by everyone, no matter his or her age or physical ability. It is a complete system of yoga that includes breath (pranayam), yoga postures (asanas), sound, chanting (mantra) and meditation. It is designed to provide you with the experience of your highest consciousness through the raising of your Kundalini. Note: Please wear loose, comfortable clothing, preferably made of cotton or other natural, breathable fiber. Avoid eating immediately before class.

UUs and Reform Jews

Final Class: Wednesday, December 3rd, 6:30 PM - 8:00 PM in the Sanct.

In observance of this year's milestone commemorations – the bi-centennials of Emerson's birth, Channing's ordination and the 350th anniversary of Jewish life in America, this course will explore the origins and development of two major liberal religious traditions in the United States, Unitarian Universalism and Reform Judaism. The common themes and issues, controversies and debates that emerged in both communities will be studied, as well as the major figures who shaped both Movements in the 19th and 20th centuries.

The concert will feature a cornet solo by Terry Everson, euphonium solo by Leif Reslow, and trombone solo by Douglas Yeo. The Band is directed by Douglas Yeo of the BSO.

The Boston Choral Ensemble

Friday, December 12th, 8:00 PM

The Boston Choral Ensemble, under the direction of Thomas Cunningham, will perform music for the Christmas season from Italy in the architectural splendor of historic Arlington Street Church. Sponsored in part by Music@ASC, this 24-voice ensemble is excited to return to ASC to present their music. Don't miss this wonderful choral offering.

Committees & ASC Groups

UUSC: 2003 Guest At Your Table

We urge all of our members and friends to participate in this year's "Guest At Your Table" effort. This is the annual holiday season project of the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee which encourages sharing of our joy and celebration with those from around the world you are in need. This special collection helps to protect and promote human rights and social justice in Latin America, Central Africa, Southeast Asia, and in communities here in the United States. Contribution boxes will be available starting today, to be filled throughout the holidays – they may be picked up during Coffee Hour at the Social Action Table in the Parish Hall. Alternatively, donation envelopes for direct contributions will be distributed during the coming weeks. Welcome a “Guest” at your table this holiday season!

Annual ‘Mitten Tree’ Collection

We are beginning this year’s special ASC holiday tradition – the “Mitten Tree”. Please mark your calendars now for the December 14 special collection of mittens, gloves, and scarves for the participants in our Friday Night Supper Program. On that Sunday, our kids will perform their annual award-winning story of this magical tree of gifts, and we will deck the branches with our donations, that will bring warmth to body and soul for many people in our community. Donations may also be left in the special collection boxes that will be available beginning Sunday, November 30th.

Wanted: An LCD Projector

The ASCenter Committee (Religious Education) needs an LCD Projector to use in “A Legacy of Democracy,” an exciting new five session adult R. E. program to be scheduled next Spring. If you have one to loan, give or otherwise make available, please contact Gene Navias at ebnavias@aol.com or 617-436-2128. Thank you!

Holiday Card Sale

Holiday cards designed for UUs are on sale today at the UU Service Committee Table at Coffee Hour. Designed especially for the UU Service Committee, the cards benefit the UUSC’s worldwide service work which especially focuses on women’s issues of justice and equity, and helps women gain the training to organize and more adequately fend for their children and themselves.

Other Notices

Alternative Gift Fair

Sunday, December 6th, 11:00 AM - 4:00 PM

ASC’s Green Sanctuary team is sponsoring an Alternative Gift Fair in our Parish Hall. Under the auspices of the Center for a New American Dream, you’ll have a chance to turn your back on the sheer commercialism of the holiday season and choose your gifts to the AIDS Action, the Heifer Project, the Pine Street Inn, Project Bread/Walk for Hunger, our own Friday Night Supper Program, and other local and international organizations that need our help. For each purchase, you’ll receive a handsome certificate that you can present to your gift recipient. An added bonus: the New American Dream folks will have home-made goodies available at their bake sale table. Come and bring your friends!

Change on the Prudential Committee

As Wendy Weiger prepares to move to Maine, the Nominating Committee has been busy finding a suitable replacement to finish out her term on the Prudential Committee. The nominee to this good work of the church will be Sam Goldfarb, and the election will be held during the Corporation meeting today.

The Survey Continues

Sponsored by the Long Range Planning and Communication Committees, a very important survey is still underway and will continue through November. The survey assess your priorities for the future of ASC as well as how publications and communication are working for you. Check during Coffee Hour to get your own copy or take the survey from home at ASCBoston.org. We hope to hear from everyone, so don't hold back!

Take Note: Thanksgiving Deadline Change

For those seeking to print items in Inside ASC for Sunday, November 30th, the deadline for submission is Monday at 10:00 PM, not Tuesday. Thank you!
