Defining our Faith:

Unitarian Universalist Religious Education— the down and dirty in thirty minutes!

Today, 12:30 PM, in the Stage Right Room

Whether you have been coming to Arlington Street Church for years or just walked through the door this morning, if you have questions, I have answers. Do you want to know what it means to be a Unitarian Universalist? What it means to live not by creed but by deed? To walk a path not bound by "religion" yet defined by faith? Religious Education at Arlington Street Church offers you a portal into where you have been, and to see where you want to go. Join Erick DuPree, Religious Educator, for an interactive exploration of Unitarian Universalism, Arlington Street Church, and Religious Education.

---

Children's Religious Education

---

Today the children of our church school will break into two groups. The younger, Chalice Children, will participate in a lesson entitled "On The Threshold" with religious educator Erick DuPree. The older children, Explorers, will learn about our First Principle in a lesson entitled "Inherent Worth" led by interim assistant minister, Dan Kane. All families and children are invited to join Erick in the sanctuary for the beginning of our worship service. They will recess to their classes through the leather door at the front right of the sanctuary during the first hymn.

Each year on a Sunday near the Feast Day of St. Francis, we celebrate the animal companions in our lives by welcoming them (crated, on a leash, in a bowl) to be blessed. Teresa Tam, our Soprano Section Leader, will sing Benjamin Britten's delightful "For I will consider my cat, Jeoffry", and Matt Meyer will join the Arlington Street Choir to perform Jim Scott "The Rainforest Song". Come join in this happy, hilarious, and love-filled worship service.

Jewish High Holy Days

Sunday, September 28th, 11:00 AM, in the Sanctuary

The Arlington Street Choir will celebrate the Jewish High Holy Days of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur with Louis Lewandowski's "Enosh" (based on Psalm 103:5-17), and "Niggun", a traditional Moditzer Hassidic melody arranged by Joshua Jacobson.

Inside Out Concert

Sunday, September 28th, 1:30 PM, in the Sanctuary

Engage with classical music through the creative listening approach developed by musician Eli Epstein and Cynthia Ann Hale. Members of the Boston Symphony Orchestra perform Darius Milhaud's "La Cheminee du roi Rene" and Irving Fine's "Partita for Wind Quintet!" At Inside Out concerts, audience members are guided through narration and demonstration to listen imaginatively into the emotional layers of music. As memories and associations are evoked through the music, connections are made to universal emotional themes. Many concertgoers report that their Inside Out listening experience is unique, meaningful, and changes the way they think about classical music.

Naperville Men's Glee Club

Sunday October 12th, 3:30 PM, in the Sanctuary

Music@ASC welcomes the Naperville Men's Glee Club! Conductor Bonnie Roberts leads the Glee Club in their 20th Anniversary Concert tour featuring pieces by Franz Biebl, Edvard Grieg, Gabriel Fauré, Randall Thomson, and a world premiere by Jackson Berkey.
