Tiffany Windows Watercolor Show

October 20th to January 20th ~ Museum of Biblical Art, New York City

Did you know that Arlington Street Church owns nine original watercolors done by well-known Tiffany artist, Frederick Wilson? These were created for donors of the “Beatitudes” Tiffany windows on the upper level of our Sanctuary.

MOBIA, the Museum of Biblical Art, is new, small, modern, and non-denominational, located at 1865 Broadway, just a few blocks from Lincoln Center. MOBIA concentrates on art derived from the Bible and all religious traditions. A show entitled “The Devotional Art of Louis C. Tiffany” will include two of our original watercolors; one from another of our upstairs windows will be featured in the show.

As part of the contract, MOBIA paid for the conservation of our two works on exhibition. We need to raise funds to conserve the remaining seven watercolors! In addition, if there is enough interest, we might try to do a “road trip” to NYC to see the Tiffany show, with an opportunity to do some Christmas shopping, see a show, or just visit “The Big Apple.” If anyone needs details about this opportunity, and directions to the Museum, contact Doug Fiero or Polly Latham through the church office, (office@ascboston.org).

Lessons of Loss

Today ~ 1:00 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

Join Rev. Vera O’Brien for an encore offering of this 4-week class beginning today. Vera is a chaplain at the Brigham and an affiliated community minister at Arlington Street. Lessons of Loss is designed to help us increase our comfort level talking about loss, to help us assess our reactions to our own losses, and to consider Unitarian Universalist responses to loss. Participants in the past have found the class to be transformative. This is not a bereavement support group, although there will be opportunities to share personal stories. The class is still open for registration. If you are interested, register at the Welcome Table today and come to the meeting at 1:00.

Anyone over 18 is welcome, and participants are expected to respect one another and keep personal matters discussed confidential.

Gatherings for Healing

Thursday, November 1st ~ 6:30 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

Gatherings for Healing will be offered every first and third Thursdays of the month from 6:00-7:00 PM. We invite those struggling with illness and disability, and those who are touched by that struggle. Suffering is often isolating. It can leave us feeling overwhelmed and entirely emptied. These gatherings are intended to move us toward a sense of wholeness, and toward feeling more connected with the flow of life. Please come as you are for inspirational readings, contemplative prayer, and chamomile communion.

We are also looking for help to make these gatherings beautiful and meaningful (with music, for example). If you would like to be part of the Healing Team, please contact Lisa Mobayed, our student minister, at LMobayed@ASCBoston.org.

Parenting for the Spirit, in the Spirit

Sundays, Nov. 4th, Dec. 2nd ~ 12:00-1:00 PM, Stage Right Room

When we are offered a window into our children’s spiritual lives, we often end up peering into our own, and learning something about both our children and ourselves. We discover what we value, how we find meaning, and the importance of faith—and we convey that to our children in words and actions.

Please join Lisa Mobayed, one of our student ministers, for lunch and conversation inspired by the book, The Gift of Faith: Tending the Spiritual Lives of Children, by Jeanne Harrison Nieuwejaar. The book can be purchased from Laura Evonne Steinman.

Childcare will be available during the gatherings. We warmly welcome all who care for children!

Arlington Street Church is honored to host the Longwood Symphony Orchestra’s Symphonic Relief for Haiti II, a concert to raise much-needed funds to complete the construction of the Center for Excellence in Rehabilitation and Education (CERE), the rehabilitation clinic of Partners In Health in Haiti.

The concert will open with a performance of Vivaldi’s Four Seasons, featuring four violinists with ties to Haiti and/or arts and rehabilitation. Venezuelan clarinetist Jorge Montilla will also perform the Boston premiere of Concertino for Clarinet and Strings by Haitian-American composer/conductor Julio Racine, founder of the Haiti Philharmonic Orchestra. The concert will conclude with Mendelssohn’s String Symphony No. 9 in C.
