Ritual for Honoring Transition

Sunday, December 3rd ~ 1:00 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

For seven years, Laura Evonne Steinman served as Arlington Street's Director of Religious Education. With the timing of her leaving in June, we missed the opportunity to say goodbye. This simple ritual is to honor the transition in our staff, release what is past, and welcome what is to come.

If you would like to share favorite memories of Laura's work among us, please write them down (think candle cards – no more than 3 minutes) and e-mail them to brobbins@ascboston.org by November 26th. Rev. Kim and Beth will be organizing these reflections to create a nice flow and identifying readers for those who can't be present or don't feel comfortable speaking in front of the group. If you won't be reading your own reflection, please note that when you send your submission. Children, youth, and families are especially encouraged to participate. All are welcome!

Ushers Needed for Christmas Eve

Christmas Eve is special at Arlington Street, with three candlelit services: 5pm (a family-oriented service, with music provided our choir) and again at 7 and 9pm (with music provided by the Boston Gay Men's Chorus). We need ushers to help out with all three services. You can volunteer by signing up at the Welcome Table in the Parish Hall after today's service; or by emailing or phoning the church office (office@ascboston.org; 617-536-7050). Please be sure to let us know which service or services you are volunteering to usher and provide an email address and phone number where we can reach you. Thank you!

The Pie In the Sky bake sale is your chance to enjoy a wonderful, freshly-baked gourmet pie and celebrate the true spirit of Thanksgiving. Every year chefs from all around Boston bake and donate 25,000 pies. Volunteer pie sellers then sell them for $30. Choose apple, pecan, pumpkin, or sweet potato! November 15th ~ Twelfth Night

November 29th ~ Troilus and Cressida

December 13th ~ All's Well That Ends Well

Professor Alan Helms and Rev. Kim welcome you to the fourth installment of the Wednesdays Shakespearathon! Reading all 38 of Shakespeare's plays is admittedly a huge ambition, but Shakespeare is, by universal consent, not only the greatest writer in the English language, but one of the immortals of world literature. We'll need patience with archaic language while attending to a plethora of footnotes (there's no doing without them unless you live in a world where you cut your meat with a bodkin and your children say their orizons at bedtime). In other words, these Shakespeare courses are not for the faint of heart. But since it's generally true that "as ye sow, so shall ye reap," the rewards will be enormous. For many of us, this will be one of the great experiences of our lives! All are welcome!
