Arlington Street's Literary Salon, The Wednesdays: Shakespeare

Wednesdays ~ 6:00 PM, Frothingham Library

April 12th ~ Much Ado About Nothing

April 26th ~ Julius Caesar May 10th ~ As You Like It

Prof. Alan Helms and Rev. Kim welcome you to the next installment of the Wednesdays Shakespearathon! Reading all 38 of Shakespeare's plays is admittedly a huge ambition, but Shakespeare is, by universal consent, not only the greatest writer in the English language, but one of the immortals of world literature. We'll need patience with archaic language while attending to a plethora of footnotes (there's no doing without them unless you live in a world where you cut your meat with a bodkin and your children say their orizons at bedtime). In other words, these Shakespeare courses are not for the faint of heart. But since it's generally true that "as ye sow, so shall ye reap," the rewards will be enormous. For many of us, this will be one of the great experiences of our lives! All are welcome!

Immigrant Justice Task Force

Wednesday, April 12th, 7:00 PM - 8:30 PM, Parish Hall

This meeting is open to all who are interested in working for immigrant justice. We want to formulate a mission statement, and to determine what we can do. How can we become strongly allied with the immigrant community? What are other congregations and groups around the country doing to offer their support? Let's envision this lifesaving initiative together!
