Covenant Renewal ~ Have You Pledged Yet?

Covenant Renewal season is not over! We are still counting on pledges from an additional 80 member households. Please get your pledge in now, so we can balance next year's budget!

There is a pledge form on the back of this publication. Just fill it out, and place it in the offering basket! Please give enough to stand by this church—to maintain the glorious building we love, to step up and pay our national and district dues, to grow the programs we so enjoy, and to support the minister and staff we depend on!

Pru in Review ~ May

- The Pru (Prudential Committee, our Board of Directors) voted to approve the budget for 2013-2014, which includes salary increases to bring the staff up to the Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA) fair compensation guidelines, and to also fully fund the UUA and Mass Bay District annual church dues.
- The Pru elected its leadership for 2013-2014: Shane McBride will be our chair and Harlow Robinson will be vice-chair.
- The Pru invited representatives from the "Building the World We Dream" two-year program to give a presentation on their progress and observations so far. Barb Seidl, Peter Lowber, and Clyde Grubbs shared their view of this anti-racism multi-cultural program, and other activities organized by the team throughout the year. Look for more from this dynamic group in the fall!

Fair Phone Rates for Prisoners

Please come to the Social Action table in the Parish Hall after the service to sign a post card asking the Commissioner of the Department of Telecommunications and Cable to implement just phone rates for inmates and undocumented people. Right now, prisoners and detainees pay exorbitant rates. You can also call Commissioner, Geoffrey Why at 617-305-3580.

Just Coffee—Just for You!

Friends, we have a new supply of Just Coffee! Please come and get yours at the Social Action table after the service. Just $12 per pound for great 100% organic coffee! Help support the grower cooperative in Chiapas, Mexico, www.justcoffee.org.

Project Heckelmith Concert

Today ~ 4:30 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

In commemoration of the 50th anniversary of German composer Paul Hindemith's death, the Nix Ensemble will present a program of all Hindemith works, featuring the rarely performed Trio, op. 47, for heckelphone (an instrument in the oboe family), viola, and piano. Audience members will have the opportunity to participate in the reading of a virtually unknown comic play by the composer, and the Nix Ensemble will present works from Hindemith's vast output that reveal the humorous side of his music. The concert is free and open to the public. Come experience the ingenious music and outrageous humor of composer Paul Hindemith, and enjoy German pastries and refreshments!

The Nix Ensemble is composed of Arlington Street's Gwen Buttemer, oboe; and other New England Conservatory alumni, Maureen Heflinger, viola; and Chris Gamboa, piano. The ensemble is the recipient of a grant from New England Conservatory's Entrepreneurial Musicianship department, and will be presenting this concert as part of a series of events created to honor composer Paul Hindemith (1895–1963).

Sponsored by Arlington Street Church, Boston Jewish Spirit, Congregation Am Tikvah, and Emmanuel Episcopal Church, this interfaith ceremony will be conducted by the clergy of the participating congregations. It will feature readings, meditations, singing, and a candlelight walk through the Memorial to the plaque honoring the homosexuals targeted by the Nazis, where the tradition of placing remembrance stones on the monument will be observed.

The entire community is welcome and urged to join Rev. Kim and share in this deeply moving ceremony. Please gather at the entrance to the Holocaust Memorial, adjoining Faneuil Hall Plaza, and opposite the rear of Boston City Hall on Congress Street.
