Second Ask Sunday

Today, 11:00 AM, in the Sanctuary

As most of you know, our budget for this fiscal year was based in part on a Covenant Renewal goal of $285,000. At the half-way point in the year, we're behind in pledges by 17%, or $50,000. In an effort to bridge this gap, the Finance Committee has decided to come back to the congregation for a Second Ask.

The Finance Committee first approached the lay leadership of the church and asked them to consider increasing their pledges by 10% – 20%. They have stepped up and responded generously and enthusiastically, increasing their pledges by an average of 25%, which reduced the gap to about $45,000.

We realize that these are extraordinarily difficult economic times. But trusting in your spirit and connection to the community, we ask each of you to consider increasing your pledge for this year to help us reach our goal. We can do this. By way of example, our average pledge is $1,000. If everyone increased his or her pledge by 20%, we could reach our Covenant Renewal goal of $285,000.

If you did not make a Covenant Renewal pledge for this fiscal year, please consider making a gift for the next five months (February – July 2009). Thank you!

We've provided pledge cards with your order of service. Please complete the card and return it during today's offering to one of the ushers, or to Rev. Kim. Thank you for your ongoing love, service, and financial commitment to Arlington Street Church.

The book gives an accurate feel for the violence-laden community in which Only A Child operates, and reinforces the urgency to help homeless youth move off the streets and into stable environments. # CONNECTIONS

small group ministry at arlington street church

Connections, the Small Group Ministry Program at Arlington Street Church, Begins This Month

Connections groups consist of eight to ten people who meet regularly to engage in spiritual seeking, caring, intellectual exploration, community building, and living our values. Groups are led by trained facilitators, meet semi-monthly and occur in facilitator's homes or here at the church. The sessions follow a prescribed format and, by all accounts, are spiritually and intellectually rewarding. Connections groups are also a great way to make new friends at the church.

There are currently three groups eagerly accepting new members. Sign up sheets are available at the Welcome Table during coffee hour or you may contact interim assistant minister Dan Kane at DKane@ASCBoston.org or 617-536-7050 ext. 18. Enrollments will continue through the end of January.
