Spiritual Passions, 2009

Spiritual Retreat in the Wilderness - An Arctic Sojourn

Sunday, March 15th, 1:00 PM, in the Hunnewell Chapel

Since childhood, nature has taught Lois spiritual lessons. In August 2008, she went on a women's wilderness camping trip to Gates of the Arctic National Park, which is in Alaska, north of the arctic circle. She will share her experiences of living in an area where the only human impact has been from nomadic hunter and gatherer cultures. On the last day of her trip, a grizzly bear came to the campsite, and one woman was mauled. She survived due to heroic efforts of the trip guides and all of the members. Discussion will consider lessons of 1) living with limited control of our environment; 2) appreciating the scale of wilderness in comparison to human experience; 3) discovering our true self by looking at the awesome beauty in wilderness and our vulnerability as humans.

Creating Sacred Space

Sunday, April 5th, 2009 1:00 PM Hunnewell Chapel

Join Erick DuPree, religious educator as we empower ourselves and learn how to create Sacred Space. Whether it's our own chair in the corner or an entire room, one common thread among all sacred space is that it enhances our ability to commune with a higher power. From this flows an abiding source of strength and a deep feeling of connectedness. Learn how creating sacred space envelops you in mystery, heightens the senses and sparks feelings of peace, comfort, energy, and love. This is a Goddess themed activity drawn from Starhawk and our Unitarian Universalist sources.

NOLA Book Club

New Orleans, a city rich in culture, was taken to its knees by hurricanes Katrina and Rita. Since the storms, there have been many books written about the struggles and hopeful rebirth of this great city. Please join us in reading I Dead in Attic, by Chris Rose, followed by Do you know what it means to miss New Orleans?. The group is scheduled to meet the first four Wednesdays in April from 5:30 pm to 6:30 pm at the church.

Jazz and Service in New Orleans

Mark your calendars for our biannual service trip to New Orleans during the last week of April through the first part of May. Join us for a week of work, jazz, good food, and fellowship in the Pelican State in support of our sisters and brothers at First Church, New Orleans. Arrive early or stay longer and enjoy the delicious food and soulful music of Jazz Fest.

If you cannot attend, please consider a donation to Arlington Street Church's Gulf Relief Fund and help sponsor a fellow congregant's week of service.

Check out the Arlington Street Church website, www.ASCBoston.org, for service trip specifics, or contact NewOrleans@ASCBoston.org

ARLINGTON STREET CHURCH

NEWS FROM THE SOUL OF SUNDAY

SUNDAY, MARCH 15TH, 2009

Today's Events

Coffee Hour

Immediately following the service in the Parish Hall

Let's gather downstairs for coffee, comestibles, and community! If you're visiting Arlington Street Church, or would like more information about Unitarian Universalism, please visit the Welcome Table. The children are in the Perkins Room, right off the Parish Hall; stop by to see what they have been up to this morning. And there's always something going on at the Social Action Table. All are welcome. Enjoy!

Bach Solo Cello Suites

Guy Fishman, Artist in Residence

Today, 11:00 AM in the Sanctuary

Cellist Guy Fishman is Arlington Street's newest addition to our thriving Artist in Residence program! Over the next two years, Guy's residency will feature performances of all six of Johann Sebastian Bach's solo cello suites. The suites were most likely composed between 1717 and 1723; nearly 300 years later, they continue to be regarded as some of the greatest works ever written for the instrument. Today marks the second installment: during today's service, Guy will perform all six movements of Bach's Suite No. 3.

Children's Religious Education

Today the children of the church school continue learning about the Principles of Unitarian Universalism. All children are welcome to join Erick DuPree, religious educator, following "Go in Joy" in the Perkins Room. The children will return to the sanctuary later in the service to lead the congregation in singing the Choral Benediction.

Witness on the Sixth Anniversary of the Iraq War

Saturday, March 21st., 10a.m.- 2 p.m. Boston Common by the Brewer Fountain at Park Street T Station

Over 4,300 US troops have been killed and over one million Iraqis have died. Five million have been either displaced or are refugees. $1-3 trillion has been spent on the war and has helped create the current economic crisis.

We will gather to honor and grieve the dead; to say no to war; and to advocate for the reconstruction of Iraq, and for our returning troops who need healthcare and jobs. Please join us in support of President Obama, who has inherited the task of ending responsibly the war he opposed.

Gather to read the names of US and Iraqi war dead. This commemoration will include short statements, prayers, poetry, and music. Come for all or part of the event. It will be held rain or shine.

Building Your Own Theology

Sunday Evenings 6:00 - 7:30 PM, Beginning March 29th

Ever wanted to explore and define your own personal theology, write your own spiritual autobiography, learn more about Unitarian Universalist history and how it shapes the ways we worship and how we do church? Building Your Own Theology is a time-tested adult religious education course that offers the opportunity to do all of this and more. The course will meet over eight consecutive sessions, from March 29th through May 17th with an additional meeting at which we will share our personal credos with each other and the larger Arlington Street Church community. This course involves weekly reading, writing and journal-keeping. You must enroll in this class in advance in order to receive the reading assignment for the first class. Enrollment is limited to ten people so reserve your spot now. Enrollment deadline is Tuesday, March 24th. Contact Dan Kane at DKane@ASCBoston.org with any questions or to reserve your place in this fascinating course.

Join our team of volunteers and help with Dan Kane's ordination!

We need volunteers to bring refreshments and snack-type foods such as fruit, cookies, cheese, and cake for Dan's ordination party! Dan's ordination service is Sunday, March 22nd and begins at 3:00 PM with the party immediately following.

We've decided to do assign suggested food and snacks alphabetically by last name: A-F bring sweets, G-P bring savory, Q-Z bring fruits or veggies. Of course if your culinary skills lead you to bring something that doesn't match your last name, please feel free to bring that instead!

It would be helpful if you could sign up ahead of time. Sign-up sheets will be available at the Welcome Table beginning Sunday, March 8th. For more information, to sign up, or if you have any questions, please contact Susan Thomas by email at SThomas@ASCBoston.org.

Volunteers are also needed to open their homes to Dan's family and friends. Many will be traveling to Boston for the weekend and may need housing. If you are willing to host one of Dan's guests, please contact Rob Cuddi via the Arlington Street Church office, 617-536-7050 or speak to Rob directly.

Sacred Eros

Thursday, March 26th, 7:00 PM in the Perkins Room

The focus for this month's meeting will be "labels". Quite often when sexuality is discussed terms like gay, lesbian, straight, bi or transgender are used to describe sexual orientation. Can these terms be too confining, or even misleading? What happens when labels don't seem to fit? Please come and share your views and join the discussion. Feel free to bring along munchies or a drink to share.

Project Only A Child Annual Fundraiser and Book Discussion

Project Only A Child, the program for Guatemalan street youths founded by Arlington Street Church's own George Leger, is holding its annual fundraiser Saturday March 28 at 7:00 PM at the Waltham Sons of Italy Hall on Cedar Street in Waltham. This is a wonderful opportunity to learn more about the great work George is doing with the young people of Only A Child, funded in part by Jubilee, Arlington Street Church's work in the world. Enjoy a buffet supper
