COMMUNITY CANDLES OF SORROW AND JOY

Kate Landis

You are invited to share your sorrows and joys with the congregation by filling out a Candle Card in the back pew on the right-hand side of the sanctuary. Candle Cards are collected until the beginning of the first hymn. After the service, Candle Cards are posted downstairs during coffee hour. You may also submit a candle by Saturday night at the church website, ASCBoston.org, and clicking on "Worship."

AFFIRMATION AND COVENANT

Love is the spirit of this congregation, And service is our gift. This is our great covenant:	El amor es el espíritu de nuestra congregación Y el servicio es nuestro regalo. Esto es a lo que nos comprometemos:
To dwell together in peace, To speak our truths in love,	Convivir en paz, Hablar nuestras verdades con amor,
And to help one another.	Y ayudarnos los unos a los otros.

NEWS FROM THE SOUL OF SUNDAY

SUNDAY, AUGUST 16TH, 2009

Today's Speaker

BARBARA SEIDL Sermon: "Growing Under a White Light"
Special Musical Guest: The Woodrow Wilsons

Soloist: Fred Seidl

Barbara Seidl is a 10 year member of Arlington Street Church and a returning guest speaker. She is especially excited to be joined this year by guest musicians The Woodrow Wilsons whose vocal harmonies and arrangements are not to be missed. (www.myspace.com/thewoodrowwilsons). Barbara's father, Fred Seidl, is a recent recipient of the Holmes-Weatherly Award recognizing a life long commitment to social justice and will be joining her for parts of the service. Her sermon, "Growing Under a White Light," invites us to examine race and race relations from a different perspective.

Next Week's Speaker

ROBERT LOUIS CUDDI Sermon: "The Fruit of Service is Love"
Rob has been a member of Arlington Street Church since 2000. He hails from Winthrop, MA, a life-long resident. Upon graduation from Boston College, he was called to the Franciscan Friary for a period of study, reflection and service. After three years Rob returned to his home town to pursue a career in education. He has traveled extensively, taught in Russia as a Christa McAuliffe National Fellow and volunteered in the missions of Africa and Haiti.

New Orleans Service Trip

Join Rev. Kim for Arlington Street Church's service trip to the Big Easy the week of October 12th. Arrive early, stay longer and enjoy this Rocking City! There is still plenty to do in and about the neighborhoods surrounding First Church. Most importantly, we need to be present and show our continued support for, not only the members of First Church, but the residents of this city of hospitality. Watch for updates in Inside, on the Web and in Snapshot. Contact Rev. Kim or email to NewOrleans@ascboston.org.
