

Welcome!

TO ARLINGTON STREET CHURCH, UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST

WHETHER A LONG-TIME MEMBER, A REGULAR WORSHIPPER OR A FIRST-TIME VISITOR, WE WARMLY WELCOME YOU TO THIS MORNING'S SERVICE. The experience of worship in this congregation strives to create a community of seekers, celebrating and nurturing a broad diversity of personal spiritual journeys.

Unitarian Universalism is rooted in a rich, historic tradition that embraces the ancient foundations of Jewish and Christian teaching and the flowering of liberal religious thought in early New England. It also affirms the truths of all of humanity's sacred paths as inspirations for our spiritual growth. Through quiet prayer and meditation, beautiful music, the sharing of our joys and concerns, and the message of the pulpit, we try to create a variety of textures and perspectives to speak to many different minds and hearts.

Most significantly, since its founding in 1729, Arlington Street Church has been "gathered in love and service for justice and peace." The ultimate meaning we can give to our experience together here is the challenge we take into our hearts to go forth from this place, working to transform and heal our lives and relationships, our community, and the world!

OUR UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST FAITH

"We covenant to affirm and promote the goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all."

This is the sixth of the seven principles and purposes of Unitarian Universalism that our congregations covenant to affirm and promote. To read all seven, as well as the six sources of our free faith, please see the Our Faith brochure in the pew rack.

ALLELUIA!

At Arlington Street Church, we raise a hand and circle two fingers above our heads to signal joyous affirmation.

Today's Speaker

BARBARA SEIDL Sermon: "Growing Under a White Light"

Special Musical Guest: The Woodrow Wilsons

Soloist: Fred Seidl

Barbara Seidl is a 10 year member of Arlington Street Church and a returning guest speaker. She is especially excited to be joined this year by guest musicians The Woodrow Wilsons, whose vocal harmonies and arrangements are not to be missed (www.myspace.com/thewoodrowwilsons). Barbara's father, Fred Seidl, is a recent recipient of the Holmes-Weatherly Award recognizing a life long commitment to social justice and will be joining her for parts of the service. Her sermon, "Growing Under a White Light," invites us to examine race and race relations from a different perspective.

Next Week's Speaker

ROBERT LOUIS CUDDI Sermon: "The Fruit of Service is Love"

Rob has been a member of Arlington Street Church since 2000. He hails from Winthrop, MA, a life-long resident. Upon graduation from Boston College, he was called to the Franciscan Friary for a period of study, reflection and service. After three years Rob returned to his home town to pursue a career in education, which became his life's passion. He has traveled extensively, taught in Russia as a Christa McAuliffe National Fellow and volunteered in the missions of Africa and Haiti.

Building Renovations Update — 351 Boylston Entrance

The 351 Boylston Street entrance has re-opened and Clarke Room will be available again for use. The Chapel, Nursery and Sound Closet remain closed. The next phase will involve hand sanding and eventual repainting of the entire area that has been de-leaded.

The renovations to the Perkins Room, Program Office and Chapel areas are funded through a grant from the Cedar Tree Foundation and funds restricted to improvement of the Hunnewell Chapel.

Summer Notes

Arlington Street Church's Summer Calendar

During summer, life at Arlington Street Church slows down and Inside Arlington Street Church is published in this leaner format. The best way to stay up to date on the church calendar is to visit our web site. At the site, www.ASCBoston.org, there is an always-up-to-date calendar maintained by our Assistant to the Church Administrator that lists all activities in the building.

New Orleans Service Trip

Come one, come all and join Rev. Kim for Arlington Street Church's service trip to the Big Easy the week of October 12th. Arrive early, stay longer and enjoy the hospitality of this Rocking City! There is still plenty to do in and about the neighborhoods surrounding First Church. Most importantly, we need to be present and show our continued support for, not only the members of First Church, but the residents of this city of hospitality.

Watch for updates in Inside, on the Web and in Snapshot. Contact Rev. Kim or email to NewOrleans@ascboston.org.
