ARLINGTON STREET CHURCH

Unitarian Universalist

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 15TH, 2009

We covenant to affirm and promote • The inherent worth and dignity of every person • Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations • Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations • A free and responsible search for truth and meaning • The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society • Respect for the interdependent web of all existence which draws from many sources • Direct experience of that transcending mystery and wonder, affirmed in all cultures, which moves us to a renewal of the spirit and an openness to the forces which create and uphold life • Words and deeds of prophetic challenge to confront powers and structures of evil with justice, compassion, and the transforming power of love • Wisdom, courage, and imagination in the pursuit of life and spiritual growth • Jewish, Christian, and other teachings which call us to respond to God's love by loving our neighbors as ourselves • Humanist teachings which counsel us to seek common good, to share the results of science, and warn us against idolatries of the mind and spirit • Spiritual teachings of earth-centered traditions which celebrate the sacred circle of life and instruct us to live in harmony with the rhythms of nature. Grateful for the religious pluralism which enriches and ennobles our faith, we are inspired to deepen our understanding and expand our vision. As free congregations we enter into this covenant, promising to one another our mutual trust and support.

WE COVENANT TO AFFIRM AND PROMOTE

Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part
