As part of the national Movement for Black Lives, Black Lives Matter Boston (BLM Boston) is committed to building equity, political will, and power for all Black lives in Metro Boston and beyond. We exist to challenge and disrupt all racist and oppressive systems, end police and economic violence in our communities, and abolish the prison industrial complex. ## ANTHEM

Gitanjai Chants ..... text: Rabindranath Tagore (1861 - 1941)
music: Craig Hella-Johnson (b. 1962)

Ever in my life have I sought thee with my songs.
It was they who led me from door to door,
And with them have I felt about me,
Searching and touching my world.
It was my songs that taught me all the lessons I ever learnt;
They showed me secret paths,
They brought before my sight many a star
on the horizons of my heart.
They guided me all the day long
To the mysteries of the country of pleasure and pain,
And at last to what palace gate have they brought me at the end of my journey?

You came down from your throne and stood at my cottage door.
I was singing all alone in a corner,
and the melody caught your ear.

You came down and stood at my cottage door.

Masters are many in our hall,
and songs are sung there at all hours.
But the simple carol of this novice struck at your love.

One plaintive little strain mingled with the great music
of the world,

And with a flow'r for a prize;

You came down and stopped at my cottage door.

OUR SHARED RESPONSIBILITY

During the offertory, you are invited to open your heart and engage in the spiritual practice of generosity. For 289 years, the abundant support of our community has allowed Arlington Street Church to remain a beacon for liberal religious values in downtown Boston. Your gifts in the Sunday plate sustain both the church and the larger community – half of the offering is shared with a partner in our mission of love, service, justice, and peace. As a convenient option, you may text the word GIVE to 617-300-0509 or scan the QR code.

Thank you for your stewardship and support!

Today in Children's Religious Education (CRE)

In 1966, Dr. Martin Luther King gave a big speech to thousands of Unitarian Universalists titled "Don't Sleep Through the Revolution." This Sunday, we are learning about Dr. King's extraordinary legacy and his history at Arlington Street Church. All are welcome to join Erica and Beth in the Perkins Room as we explore what we can do to "stay awake" to the important issues in our world today.

Allie and Lena are available in the nursery to care for babies and small children. To find the nursery, go through the leather door to the right of the pulpit and cross through the chapel. The nursery is on your left before the stairs.
