

Arlington Street Church's Summer Calendar

During summer, life at Arlington Street Church slows down and Inside Arlington Street Church is published in this leaner format. Until Homecoming Sunday Service (September 12th), the best way to stay informed on all of the church's activities is to visit our website, www.ASCBoston.org and click on "Calendar". Our facilities manager keeps it up to date.

Homecoming Sunday

Sunday, September 12th

Our Senior Minister, Reverend Kim K. Crawford Harvie, and our choir are on vacation and will return for Homecoming Sunday, September 12th. Please bring a little water from your summer travels for our water communion celebration!

Kundalini Yoga Class

Wednesday, July 14th ~ 6:00 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

Experience fun exercises and poses, breathing techniques, chanting, meditation, and deep relaxation in this unique class. Moving energy through your body brings positive change and growth. There will be a $10 charge that will go to the church.

Whether a long-time member, a regular worshipper or a first-time visitor, we warmly welcome you to this morning's service.

The experience of worship in this congregation strives to create a community of seekers, celebrating and nurturing a broad diversity of personal spiritual journeys. Unitarian Universalism is rooted in a rich, historic tradition that embraces the ancient foundations of Jewish and Christian teaching and the flowering of liberal religious thought in early New England. It also affirms the truths of all of humanity's sacred paths as inspirations for our spiritual growth. Through quiet prayer and meditation, beautiful music, the sharing of our joys and concerns, and the message of the pulpit, we try to create a variety of textures and perspectives to speak to many different minds and hearts. Most significantly, since its founding in 1729, Arlington Street Church has been "gathered in love and service for justice and peace." The ultimate meaning we can give to our experience together here is the challenge we take into our hearts to go forth from this place, working to transform and heal our lives and relationships, our community, and the world!

OUR UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST FAITH

"The living tradition we share draws from many sources including direct experience of that transcending mystery and wonder, affirmed in all cultures, which moves us to a renewal of the spirit and an openness to the forces that create and uphold life."

This is the first of the six sources of Unitarian Universalism from which our living tradition draws. To read all six sources, as well as the seven principles of our free faith, please see the Our Faith brochure in the pew rack.

ALLELUIA!

At Arlington Street Church, we raise a hand and circle two fingers above our heads to signal joyous affirmation.

Spirit Of Life (Hymn 123)

*Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.*

AFFIRMATION AND COVENANT

*Love is the spirit
of this congregation,
And service is our gift.
This is our great covenant:
To dwell together in peace,
To speak our truths in love,
And to help one another.*

*El amor es el espíritu
de nuestra congregación
Y el servicio es nuestro regalo.
Esto es a lo que nos comprometemos:
Convivir en paz,
Hablar nuestras verdades con amor,
Y ayudarnos los unos a los otros.*

Today's Speaker

BARB SEIDL, a long standing member of Arlington Street Church, is excited to be returning for her third summer in the pulpit. She will be speaking on "The Crack Where the Light Comes In" - what our failings and foibles have to tell us about who we are and what we value. She is delighted to announce that she will be joined by hand percussionist and song leader Matt Meyer who has performed for hundreds of services in Unitarian Universalist (UU) congregations across the country. Barbara is a second generation UU who comes to Arlington Street Church by way of Prairie Unitarian Society in Madison, Wisconsin. She can be found most Sundays singing her heart out in Arlington Street Church Choir.

Comming Up – July 18th

"iSpirituality" Paul Dakin

PAUL DAKIN, Paul has been a member of ASC since 1995 and an active lay leader for most of that time. He's enjoyed a break this past year after a long stretch of chairing or co-chairing our annual pledge drive. Paul works in development for the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum in Boston. His sermon, "iSpirituality" will take a look at how more and more people are seeing fit to continually individualize, custom-mix, and add/delete their spiritual paths and practices, and what this might mean – both the promise and the challenges – for our congregational life and our Unitarian-Universalist faith.

Summer Worship Highlights

Coffee Hour

Immediately following the service in the Parish Hall

Let's gather downstairs for coffee, comestibles, and community! Proceeds from Sandwich Board sales support church program income. Let's build community over coffee, soup, sandwiches, and desserts.

General Assembly (GA) Summary

The 2010 General Assembly of Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations in Minneapolis was more than usually filled with important and difficult decisions. In addition to inspiring worship, fantastic speakers and edifying programs, the business agenda was very busy. Here is a summary of the major items:

- The 2012 GA in Phoenix, AZ will be a "Justice GA", with business held to a minimum in favor of public social justice witness and action, in protest of SB1070.
- The Congregational Study and Action Item for the next 3 years is Immigration as a Moral Issue
- The Actions of Immediate Witness are:
 - Oppose Anti-Immigrant Measures at the State Level (Arizona Law SB 1070)
 - Gulf Coast Environmental and Economic Justice 2010
 - Clean Up the Clean Energy Bill
- A Statement of Conscience on Peacemaking was adopted. It calls us to take specific actions to create peace in our world, society, congregations, families and ourselves.

Go to UUA.org for more information, ask any of the delegates (Doug Fiero, Abby Houseknecht, Allison Palm, Sarah Richards, Heleni Thayer, Mark Watanabe) about their experiences, and watch for a GA follow up workshop this fall. This is an exciting time for us to "walk the walk" of our UU principles--let's get started!

PLEASE SILENCE YOUR CELL PHONE. THANK YOU!
