

October Share the Plate: Stand with Standing Rock

The Standing Rock Sioux Tribe is locked in a legal battle to stop the Dakota Access Pipeline from impacting its cultural, water, and natural resources. The Dakota Access Pipeline is a 1,168-mile crude oil pipeline that will transport nearly 570,000 barrels each day from North Dakota to Illinois. The Army Corps of Engineers green-lighted several parts of the process without fully satisfying the National Historic Preservation Act, various environmental statutes, and its responsibility to the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe.

The current proposed pipeline route crosses under Lake Oahe, just a half mile up from the Standing Rock Sioux Reservation. This is another chapter in the long history of the federal government granting the construction of potentially hazardous projects near or through tribal lands, waters, and cultural places without consulting the tribe. Your generous contributions to the collection this month will allow Arlington Street to Stand with Standing Rock to protect their water and sacred places.

El amor es el espíritu

ANTHEM

As Torrents in Summer

text: Henry Wadsworth Longfellow (1807 - 1882)

music: Edward Elgar (1857 - 1934)

As torrents in summer,
Half dried in their channels,
Suddenly rise, though the
Sky is still cloudless,
For rain has been falling
Far off at their fountains;

So hearts that are fainting
Grow full to o'erflowing,
And they that behold it
Marvel, and know not
That God at their fountains
Far off has been raining!

OUR SHARED RESPONSIBILITY

During the offertory, you are invited to open your heart and engage in the spiritual practice of generosity. For 287 years, the abundant support of our community has allowed Arlington Street Church to remain a beacon for liberal religious values in downtown Boston. Your gifts in the Sunday plate sustain both the church and the larger community – half of the offering is shared with a partner in our mission of love, service, justice, and peace.

Thank you for your stewardship and support!
