Happy Passover!

Chag Same'ach!

Today's flowers are given by Rebecca Parkhill and Robert Willett in memory of Rebecca's mom Alorie.

Alorie was a beloved mother, wife, grandmother,
teacher, singer, playwright, and friend.
She died at the age of 75 in a car accident.

She was very important to and involved with her grandchildren and we miss her especially this spring as her grandson Luka Willett is graduating from Brown University with a concentration in English, which is what she taught at the Cambridge School of Weston.

We love you, Mom and Grandmummy.
Your memory is a blessing to us.

We Shall Be Known ..... Karisha Longaker (b. 1976) from MaMuse
arrangement: Mark David Buckles (b. 1980)

We shall be known by the company we keep
By the ones who circle round to tend these fires
We shall be known by the ones who sow and reap
The seeds of change, alive from deep within the earth

It is time now, it is time now that we thrive
It is time we lead ourselves into the well
It is time now, and what a time to be alive
In this Great Turning, we shall learn to lead in love
In this Great Turning, we shall learn to lead in love

AMONG TEAM: OUR COVENANT ..... Lois Hartsough and the Among Team

Between 2020 and 2023, many people from Arlington Street participated in “Beloved Conversations Within,” a program of Meadville Lombard Theological School which involves learning about racism and ethnicity. Within is done on Zoom and includes different curricula for white people and for BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, and People of Color). Participants met in learning pods with individuals from all over the United States. If this piques your interest, the Within program is ongoing and offered twice yearly, in the spring and the fall.

In 2023, the Arlington Street Church Transformation Team for Racial Justice applied to do “Beloved Conversations Among.” Between 2023 and 2025, the Among program will address racial justice issues and congregation-wide change. The Among team includes twenty people who completed Within and are working with a coach from First Parish Dorchester (Rev. Elka Carrier-Ladd). This work is for the whole Arlington Street Church congregation and the Among team hopes for your support and participation.

Today, members of the Among team – familiar faces to many of you – will share our covenant. To begin, you will hear from Among team member Lois Hartsough, who believed in the work so much that she provided the financial support to make it possible.

Arlington Street Church Among Covenant

Purpose

We, the members of the Arlington Street Church Among Team, will work to make our Among Team and our broader spiritual community a safer space for people of color to enter and to thrive, a place for liberation and justice, and a place for all to grow in anti-racism.

We believe community and caring is more important than productivity.

We will center the needs and voices of BIPOC and strive to actively create more space for BIPOC members of the group.

We will be transformed in the service of the work.

Presence and Participation

We will be open-minded, not defensive, and we will work from a place of caring.

We will practice radical hospitality; we will make space, take space, and share space.

We recognize that, if we share often, we can allow ourselves to be silent; and, if we tend to be silent, we can allow ourselves to find our voices.

We will respect each other's identities, stories, and boundaries.

We believe there is no one right way.

We will reflect, be curious, be our whole selves, and be brave in facing our fear of making mistakes.

We will do our best to avoid making assumptions.

We will learn from each other and teach each other, sharing ideas, experience, and wisdom.

We believe each person's experience has meaning.

We believe there is always enough time to do the right work.

Conflict Resolution

We recognize that harm is inevitable and repair is possible. When we cause harm to one another, we commit to repair the conflict individually, with support, and communally.

We will approach mistakes, failures, and conflict as opportunities for growth.

We will use conflict resolution as an opportunity for kindness, growth, shared leadership, and open and honest communication.

We will communicate clearly, openly, and honestly; we will keep issues from getting too big.

Trust

We will build trust through our relationships and our work.

We will hold ourselves and each other in love.

*Hymn 153

Woke Up This Morning with My Mind Stayed on Freedom

African American Spiritual

Oh, I woke up this morning
with my mind
(And it was stayed) stayed on freedom
Woke up this morning with my mind
(And it was stayed) stayed on freedom
Woke up this morning with my mind
(And it was stayed) stayed on freedom
Hallelu, Hallelu, Halleluia

I was walking and talking
with my mind
(And it was stayed) stayed on freedom
Walking and talking with my mind
(And it was stayed) stayed on freedom
Walking and talking with my mind
(And it was stayed) stayed on freedom
Hallelu, Hallelu, Hallelujah

I was singing and praying
with my mind
(And it was stayed) stayed on freedom
Singing and praying with my mind
(And it was stayed) stayed on freedom
Singing and praying with my mind
(And it was stayed) stayed on freedom
Hallelu, Hallelu, Hallelujah

Oh, I woke up this morning
with my mind
(And it was stayed) stayed on freedom
Woke up this morning with my mind
(And it was stayed) stayed on freedom
Woke up this morning with my mind
(And it was stayed) stayed on freedom
Hallelu, Hallelu, Hallelujah!
Hallelu, Hallelu, Hallelujah!

Open my heart to be a sanctuary
All made holy, loved, and true

With thanksgiving, I'll be a living
Sanctuary for you

AFFIRMATION AND COVENANT

Love is the spirit
of this congregation,
And service is our gift.
This is our great covenant:
To dwell together in peace,
To speak out truths in love,
And to help one another.

El amor es el espíritu
de nuestra congregación,
Y el servicio es nuestro regalo.
Esto es a lo que nos comprometemos:
Convivir en paz,
Hablar nuestras verdades con amor,
Y ayudarnos los unos a los otros.

*HYMN 271

Come Down, O Love Divine .....text: Bianco da Siena (c. 1350–1399) translation: Richard Frederick Littledale (1833–1890), alt.
music: Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872–1958)

Come down, O Love divine
Seek thou this soul of mine
And visit it with thine own ardor glowing
O Comforter, draw near
Within my heart appear
And kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing

O let it freely burn
Till earthly passions turn
To dust and ashes in its heat consuming

And let its glorious light
Shine ever on my sight
And clothe me round, the while my path illumining

And so the glory strong
For which the soul will long Shall far outpass the power of human telling

For none can guess its grace
Till we become the place
Wherein the holy spirit makes a dwelling

SERMON

Around the Campfire ..... Rev. Kim K. Crawford Harvie

SILENT REFLECTION, MEDITATION, AND PRAYER

ANTHEM

Kindling: Small Reflections on a Limitless Faith ..... Elizabeth Alexander (b. 1962)
VI. Where Belief Begins
Epilogue

It comes down to this, in the end.
And in the beginning and middle as well:
Earth, generous and visceral,
Manifested in mountains and hidden within clouds,
Familiar to rhizomes and young knees.
Air and Water, faithful channels of change,
Whose currents and cycles nudge germination
All the way through to rot and back again.
What's more, there's Fire, dazzling and improbable,
Not only in the cores of planets and stars
But also in the hollow where belief begins.

Our search for kindling takes us far beyond ourselves –
There we gather Truth and Mystery.
We return in joy to tend the chalice of our hearts.

OUR SHARED RESPONSIBILITY

Friends, these are extraordinary times that call for extraordinary generosity. Since 1729, the support of our community has allowed Arlington Street to thrive as a beacon of love, service, justice, and peace. This congregation is entirely self-supporting. In addition, we share each Sunday's collection with a partner in our vital mission. It's up to us to finance the beloved spiritual community we want to create! Today, we invite you to be part of Arlington Street's story of devotion, innovation, and transformational generosity. Please consider making a special gift to this morning's offering.
